INTRODUCTION

THE book I place for the benefit of the world, I claim, was given to me by unseen power. By living in harmony with God all that is for us will be received.

My grandmother was a Quaker, very spiritual and refined. She taught me my A, B, C's and to read in a large-print Bible. It was my greatest comfort in illness and sorrow when nearly all of our family passed out and I was left almost a lone orphan. I continued to study the Bible, and in after years I realized that Jesus left no creed but love one another as the Father loved us, and that we were a part of the whole. By living in harmony and love with the Father, all His children would in time become perfect. I left the church and became interested in Science and was restored to health when all hope of life was gone.

When I gained strength to walk I was forced to the table as one thirsting for a drink, was powerless to hold my hand quiet. I was told by the power to take up the pencil. I began to write these words: I am your grandmother, Mary Smith, who taught you to read and write on earth, and now I have come to teach you, from spirit-life, to correspond with us. I continued to receive letters from every member of my family and many friends, stating incidents of the past life, and from those who wronged us financially, stating how they were suffering for it and begging forgiveness.

I also received beautiful letters from my God-father, who was a Dominican monk, who baptised me in Mrs. Dahlgren's drawing room. She was, indeed, a most angelic character; and could I be as happy and in the holy sphere she is, I would be willing to live on bread and water the remainder of my life. She was so happy because I had discovered the truth, that they were so near to help us.

I also received beautiful letters from my mother, telling me how God's angels are preparing to protect us, as all wickedness must cease, saying we all doubt, but the angels all know the last days are not distant, when the Father shall come to claim His children, and also that their life is love. There is no creed or ritualism; universal love, and she cannot express her happiness, it is beyond expression.

If only our world could realize the truth, they would never graft or wrong each other.

I claim no faith, but God is Love, and His Love shall be our all. I am only a channel through which this message is given to the world, just as it was given before. I trust those that read it will not criticize me, for I am not responsible for a word in the book.

FRANCES HINDERMAN.

AND A NEW WORLD

I AM here, my own dear child of God, to tell you, you are now going to receive the most beautiful gift God can bestow upon His children. You are His chosen one to reveal to this world of sorrow the coming blessings He will bestow upon those who love Him as you do.

Now, my dear child, I will begin by referring you to the 16th chapter of St. John. Will you kindly read it before you begin my work of God?

You will receive the blessings of our dear heavenly Father in a few days. He will spiritualize you by giving you spiritual enlightenment from Him for this great work of Revelation. Your world shall be lifted in glory in the year 1919. There will be many taken up in the clouds in glory. Death shall not touch you. You shall awaken in glory to Him that loves you. Yes, there is no death to him that is God's child. You shall have the perfect light of love, all shall be sunshine. You will have no more ills. You shall see no more sorrow, but the wicked shall continue on in the world of sorrow until we come to them and give them peace and salvation as children of God; to give them the enlightenment and happiness we have.

You are going to be given another earth, which will be clean and most pure. You will no longer eat nor sleep as now, but you will unite in happiness in glory. I am not going to give anything but what comes from your heavenly Father. You are to be taken up in glory to God, as many more like you. I don't mean in the clouds you see in the heavens, but the sunshine of love and glory. I mean to explain all in plain facts in the following pages of my book.

There will be many most awful revolutions in all the different countries, because evil, the devil, is fighting its way to destruction. Then there will be another revolution in America which will last until every vestige of pride shall vanish from the earth, for it is filled with lust and evils that are produced by the wicked riches of the devil. They no longer know God in love, but by form:

He shall melt their hearts like unto hot molten and they shall pray for peace of mind. They shall hunger and thirst as one perishing from thirst for the beautiful love of God that the children of God are enjoying. You shall go to them as angels from heaven to help them to God. You shall be of those who God speaks of. The angels of God shall lift them up.

Now there will be much darkness to those who are enjoying the pleasures of this earth. They shall fall, not to rise again for generations, for they have discarded God's loving kindness in giving them all the blessings of this life, and so no longer be with those they have scorned in wrath, because they are poor, but gifted with God's great unlimited knowledge of wisdom. They shall rule the earth in the renewal of all the great works of God. It shall flourish in growth and beauty in everything from God.

The seasons shall change and the whole world shall be a perpetual spring of sunshine and glory, but the corruptible shall enjoy nothing until they are lifted up by God's chosen and brightly cultured children. The universities will no longer be ruled by the allurements of wealth, but truth, the power of God; such knowledge as never before has been on earth. Eye nor ear has ever experienced such music and beauty of nature. Birds of the most exquisite beauty shall warble their carols in the beautiful woodlands. Flowers of the most wonderful beauty and sweetest odor will pervade the atmosphere; so that everything will be made perfect by God, as He has promised those that love Him.

But, oh, the sorrow and distress to those that have falsely served Him in this life. They must struggle. Your debts for your disobedience of sin must be paid that you may live out every disobedient act to God, so that you can be made perfect in His works. We must be chiseled as a rough marble into a beautiful statue. So you can see that God's words are true. It is not in acts and words, but in sanctification to Him that loveth you, that your prayers are answered.

All forms and creeds of man must vanish. Love must reign, by kind and loving acts to one another that cultivates God's love, for you are His children, and He is Love, and so must be you, if you want to enjoy the fruits of His bounty.

There shall be a perfect brotherhood of God's love in the next century, so that all shall be most prolific in knowledge and perfecting everything that is of God. The earth shall glow with love, all shall be doubly perfected. There is perfect darkness in this earth now in comparison to the one that is to come. There shall be no more seeds planted as now, but God shall give all freely to those that love Him.

AND A NEW WORLD

There shall be no more struggling for a meager living as the poor are now fighting; for then those that now are causing the distress of the suffering must perish, as they are causing at present. We must live by God's law of love, the golden rule of life. It will perfect all things in time. But it has been since the beginning the persecution of the humble. Now, my dear afflicted ones of God, who forgives and has much sympathy for you, come to Him who can give you all you ask for, for the gates of paradise will soon be open, so that you may have all you require in the new life to come, when earth and heaven shall come together, for such it shall be to all you, that follow in your heavenly Father's footsteps.

The rich have had their pleasures in starving and scorning you who are endowed with God's gifts. So now they must take your place and see how the new world shall thrive under the new dispensation, when there shall but one King reign the world. The King of love and sunshine, that rules the earth. The beasts shall languish in prison and chains in generations to come, until they are purified by fire, as those have done that have suffered so much and clung to Him, who knows and sees all things, for them shall be a perfect life of peace and prosperity.

A NEW REVELATION

So now my children, who read this book of Revelation from God, take warning of what is to come to those who continue their wickedness. God is good. He is giving you ample time to receive Him and His works to those that walk in the path of righteousness, for those all things shall be bountiful. God knows the heart. We cannot come to Him through fear and selfishness, but through perfect love and sanctification, so become likewise, for hypocrisy is double iniquity. You have much more to suffer when you try to deceive the world, for then ye are deceiving yourselves, but not your God, who knows the heart.

No, no one can deceive the Master, who giveth and who taketh away. There is no deception in heaven or earth where God reigns, but where satan is there is ever sorrow and destruction, that is why the world shall become beautiful when God, the All Supreme, shall rule His children. There shall be no more kings to plunder and destroy, but peace and love shall reign. The kings shall clank their chains in prison for the persecution of my dear ones, sayeth the dear Lord. The time has come for the reign of satan to cease, and now you shall all see the difference in good and evil.

I am He, that waits patiently. Waited since the fall of man who found all their pleasure in personal enjoyments, and not of the truth, the heart of love, which was God's first creation through which all things should have been perfect. But God is so true, so patient. He gave satan his opportunity to see what he could accomplish, so He gave him all the power he wanted until he had completed his work, so he has buried all in destruction and sorrow, until the loving Father could no longer endure, so now he must fall and all his kingdoms must fall with him, so you will see the reward of pride and selfishness, satan's laws of hell, for such it has been. He has filled the world with afflicted children, when they should have been most perfect in the sight of their creator. They have become marred and blind and crippled, all has turned to total destruction, and when Christ Jesus comes to reign in the heart of man, all will be sublime, a paradise to those who have had to suffer and were so patient for God to help them. Now all you faithful servants, that have lived in Christ Jesus shall have your joys. You shall be delivered by the angels of mercy and carried to your heaven, and enjoy the celestial joys of life as it were, in comparison to your present. The chimes of sweetest music shall reach every ear that loveth God. But those that have continued to live the lives of the hypocrite, they must look for their reward. For it is said the lamb shall lead the lion. The liar shall be destroyed, never to return, and those that continue, shall be made blind to all their works, for evil, the satan, can no longer instruct them in their evil, and they will fall in truth and humility to God, when He shall make them see as never before. There are to be many changes on the earth. Where one is, another shall be. One shall be let up and another let down. It shall be a rise and a fall. Those who have lead the path of righteousness shall find the glory and happiness God has ordained for them everywhere they go. The kingdom of heaven shall reign within and they shall have every wish gratified.

You are going to receive the perfect blessings of God in the generations to come, everything from Him shall be made perfect to him that believes in truth. There shall be no sorrow to them that love the Holy Spirit. There shall be no more prisons built or filled, but they shall fall never to be rebuilt, for the love and Salvation of God shall perfect man, so that he shall no longer plunder and murder, for all things shall be given him.

Now, in the reign of satan all was sin, sickness and death. The scaffold was the devil's glory. He was happy when he could cast one of my children in prison, for he knew it was my anguish to see my loved ones suffer for him. Now that he shall be cast into darkness and chains and all his kingdoms with him, I shall prove to my children what they have lost, my words shall come to pass even through bloodshed, which has been and will continue until all the princes of wealth shall know me and obey me in sacred love. They can no longer bow in wealth and grandeur to me, but from the heart that shall change and know no sorrow, then will I hear him. I love not wealth which creates so much sorrow and distress among my dear children, I only want each and every one to have all his wants supplied and, above all, perfect happiness in his homelife. I shall destroy all debauch and him that gives it to his neighbor shall perish, so I ask you to abolish the liquid of the devil in time, before my coming, for I shall come with power, and all things belonging to the devil shall fall and perish. I shall quench in the height of his glory. He has brought much sorrow and battles that should not have been and destroyed my fond ones. Now he shall suffer ten fold for making mine suffer in their goodness to me. I have saved my loved ones who have followed me, but those who were sinful must pay their debts in injuring my children. The time is near when my reign shall make you most joyful. Your crops will yield tenfold. Your homes shall be peace and love, and you will only be sorry for not recognizing that this came from your heavenly Father to His loved ones.

The change in the seasons will begin in 1918, at the close of the world's war. It will be one of the most seasonable years for many decades. It is the beginning of God's reign. The new era will be seen and felt by many, but the great must come to God and give up all their worldly possessions, unless they use it in a godly way, for nothing corruptible shall remain under the Divine Law. So, therefore, all children that have been living in the false pleasures of satan must come to retribution, for the new and perfect life must reign. I am the Lord God who created all things perfect. But through the gilded sights of nature of satan attracted my dear ones to the personal instead of the soul which should have made life perfect. Then came sorrow, sickness and death, which, had my law of love continued, you would all have been beautiful and perfect in my sight. I made the flowers perfect, all that kept you living, and satan followed, destroying my works, he brought you storms, earthquakes and everything he could to cause me distress. So there have been wars upon wars until I have conquered him in all his gilded array of arrogance and pride of the devil, for such there is.

I, your Lord God, have been patience beyond all expression, but now that my time is here I shall crush—crush until every vestige of his works shall be put away, and I will reign in love and peace and all my words and work must be completed. Then my laws have been fulfilled and the lamb shall come in peace to bring all comforts to His children. The devil shall take all his works with him, he shall no more wound my dear suffering children who are helpless under the rich man in his plunder, regardless of the widows and orphans. Ah, ye crowned heads, ye bankers and speculators, prepare for the hour in which I come to crush every vestige of satan's glory. I gave talents that were to rule, but he, the devil, turned them down for his chosen. Now, when the new world starts that I build, my gifts must rule all things, which shall be made perfect, and my dear children shall reign above the licentious and the harlot. In her place shall come the Queen of Grace, Love and Purity. She shall not be corrupted in the flesh as a stench to humanity, but I shall make her clean and pure, beautiful to behold, and you shall revere her for the sacrifice she has made for me, her Lord God in Heaven, in place of the corruption of the devil. Wonders shall never cease until all shall be accomplished.

The devil is taking full force at the closing of his reign, and I am patient until I crush him in his glory. He is filling the earth with sorrow, but all shall fall to me to protect them for such I will. Come all to me that are heavy laden and I will give you rest, for your burdens are heavy. I shall release you from all. Do not be weary nor disconsolate, for I am with you, and shall give you sunshine and glory. You shall never stumble and fall, but always live in the height of God's glory and light which is perfect light. Your children shall no longer be a curse to your existence, but a hallow of happiness shall prevail. These were my laws in the beginning, but satan robbed me as did you rob one another by his laws. Now try to rob under my kingdom, and see how quick you will be cast asunder, as I have him, for all things must become perfect under my rule. I have accomplished my words by showing you the effects of his reign. You must now go forth in your wealth and give it to him in his wars. He has crushed you in your earthly pride. It is the last act he would give me that he might receive absolution from me, as he has done with my children. So has he come to prove to you all. I am the Lord who is the first and the last, salvation and glory shall be yours now, my dear ones, and you shall reap the harvest of your love to me. But, my children, you must look on my dear ones that have to break the laws of satan. If I cannot crush him and his works at once, it must be by sorrow, for some have no reformation in them, but through fire. So such it must be until my words are proven truth to you. I am with you always, and when you call me in the hours of sin and suffering I will hear you and take you to my fold. Oh, then shall I delight when each and every one of my children comes with a heart full of divine love to the Father of everlasting love. How glorious when I can shelter them from the storm that satan left them, and every wound he afflicted them and their children with, shall be speedily healed. Such is my comfort to those that love me. They shall dance to the glory of my love, the music will be music from the soul, not the corruptible that filled my children with sin and lust, but the glorious music from the spheres with which I will endow all those who have the talents. Their happiness shall be perfect, not that which brings sorrow and shame. Every hell shall reopen in new ways and laws by me.

A NEW REVELATION

You shall feast in true joy not in drink and lust, which is the delight of the devil, but in all that perfect happiness. So now I, therefore, implore of my dear ones to come to me to escape the fire and persecution satan is going to avenge upon me, your dear Lord and Creator, all I have built, he has continually destroyed—you are all going to perceive his vengeance in 1918 when his fiery furnace of wrath shall and has been persecuting my dear children. The earth shall quake, the air shall turn foul from the breaths of his accomplices who follow him. The suffocating of gases shall follow him. My children shall fall from the heavens as the sparks from his fiery den. He shall have no more rest but shall fall with all of his favorites, never to rise again.

The Chaldeans were a great race of good. They predicted many things from God which surely did take place, which came from Him, their Lord and Master. Now I shall endow another power of higher standard and beautiful simplicity which is my law of love and truth. I ask no forms or creeds, no bowing of the knee, but the purity of your conscience. I mean for no more idolatry to impersonate my dear Son, Jesus Christ, who represented me on earth and shall come again to rule and claim every part of my work for Him. I ordained to save you that have followed me, and now there shall not be one stone left upon another until my law is fulfilled. There shall be gnashing of teeth to those that deny this, my law, given with truth in the second coming of my Son, in whom I cherish. He suffered once upon the cross for you, but at the second coming, you that deny him must suffer the cross until you shall fall in humility to Him for me. There are many inhabitants of the earth who don't know me, but every bird and every beast and every human shall know me this time, for in them shall be a recognition which was never before experienced. You shall no longer be the property of the devil that has kept you in ignorance. You shall unite with all my other worlds in intelligence and glory. You shall hear and speak to each other as brother and sister, father and mother, and there will no longer be denied the loving voices after the soul has left the body, for I shall make you perfect, as my other dear ones in my heavenly home. You have lived to guess, but no one really knows the Lord, your Master, as you will when my dear Son comes again. You shall see Him in His heavenly robe of celestial glory as did the writer of the one I have called to deliver my warning to those that are not prepared. She shall continue my work until every part of the earth shall receive the message I have inspired her to give to this earthly world of satan, for such it is, and I am now in the power to destroy his works, that have been perfected in destruction. He has slowly blinded you that you could find no real pleasure except in his personal pleasures. Thousands of years he has inveigled you into false religious thought I never asked of you. Your forms are earthly and not spiritual love, my law is eternal bliss, love to Him that can give you real joy and not the perishable. Have not your crops been failures, your homes filled with disease, why? Because of mortal and not divine life, where no sorrow nor sickness ever comes. I am He that perfects all things. Satan of the world, who exists close to you is of the fallen ones that were deported from heaven through his false pride. He was named then, through the holy law, Lucifer, the prince of devils. He broke the chains of prison and roved the earth for centuries, myriads of centuries.

I gave him the privilege to see what success he would have, and I found, through his gilded promises, he created humanity to love the flashes of fire they made on rocks. This was the first knowledge he gave which led to one experiment after the other. Then he gave them the ruling of mortal law, the pleasures of the body and that which follows, sin, filth, corruption of the foulest, which led to the development of all mortal afflictions, for if they had remained in the spirit, you would all have been beautiful, holy and clean, intelligence of the highest, you would now be living in a world of sublime love and beauty. No deaths, but in open communication with the loved ones who dwell with me, as was my desire. But this was a trial given to you to judge between my world and hell. I gave you spirit, the conscience which he could not wholly destroy, for that was the foundation I built upon to take from all he had robbed me of. All of you of his little hell have recognized his dismal destruction and bloody wars, but alas, they shall be taken from him at the end of the twenty thousand seven hundred years, which is the exact date of his deportation from the heavenly spheres. All shall be renewed under my dispensation and my earth shall be a perpetual paradise of glory, and my heavenly children shall rejoice. There will be no more refusing any communications from my dear ones as is now done by the Catholic religion, you call it. Mine is a religion that requires no fabulous wealth in great, grand churches to help you to heaven, but the only pay I want is love to your God. I know no representative of my Son on earth in forms and laws, for my Son Jesus never left a form, for He was perfect in spirit and in extreme poverty his conscience was clear. I shall have no influence of money to keep you from purgatory and unpardonable sin to the Holy Ghost, that is a law satan instituted. Did I not say, "Come all that are heavy laden and I shall give you rest"? Did I not tell you in the Divine writing of the Bible, that your part was to clothe the needy? You should feast without money. But it has been plunder, murder, wars, all for the love of pride, selfishness and the love of greed. I must possess certain property, lands, regardless of what God says. Do ye not recognize that all you have distressed and plundered for in religion was the desire of the devil? You crucified and murdered my children for the sake of sacrificing for me. Satan was your God. For I know ye not, sin and persecution. You come to me in all your pomposity, I know ye not. You sip your wine in lies on the Sabbath to serve the devil through the week, I know ye not. I know you not by any laws but love, and universal brotherhood of man, which will ever keep you perfect in my sight and prosperous.

The influence of money shall pass away. My children of celestial glory will be found in palaces built without money, but all shall come to them as I clothe the lilies of the field. Oh, ye hypocrites who sting my poor, struggling children in your pride, in your sumptuous homes that shall tumble after the reign of satan. Where you live makes no difference to me, I will doubly give you that follow me, but you shall crush every vestige of pride. You shall bow to no man but me. I will answer you. I shall punish every man two fold, who lives in secret to the world, for what; to be recognized by the law of the devil. You shall bury your lusty thoughts if you are of me. Come before the world and proclaim your services which have been since the devil's reign. All things must be destroyed. You cannot worship God and the devil. I am your master. You live by the spirit and conquer the desires of the devil. I shall open every den that satan has built to hide his works from the world. Take off your garbs of order and pageantry. Every child that loves me through the blind forms shall be freely forgiven and be called children of the blest, for they know me not, I have all power and shall lift them on high to the Father that loves them. For I know their thoughts are pure and divine.

My dear ones shall be one dear body of love, one faith, the love of the Creator, who made all things perfect. Now, my dear children who read my book of prediction and warnings, blaspheme not my dear child that I have blessed and given power through her pure and divine love, for as you cause her I will cause you to sorrow, for you are hurting her under the laws of satan, and she is blessed by me, her heavenly Father, who she sacrificed much for. She has been weighed and not found wanting in the balance. I have come to her for she has been made doubly sensitive that she might be well tested by satan in all her heavy burdens and illness. She prayed in secret. She never lost faith in her heavenly Father. She took no forms, but by my love and devotion I sent my heavenly chosen ones to protect her in her solitary hours of sufferings, and she was so grateful for my love to her. So when you all come in humility to me, as this dear child, who I have endowed with many talents which shall soon be revealed to the world to prove my power. I shall come to you likewise. She was born from a good and pure, modest minded mother, who is now in blessed happiness. See how I have rewarded her for her love to me, for such is the kingdom of heaven to all that follow me and abide by heavenly laws. You shall know me in education, not by books, but by inspiration, which is the highest of God's work. Through inspiration you shall build a new generation, and all you do shall be perfect in my sight. For I have made all things perfect, am perfect, so you must become so, so that you shall all be one perfect whole, my life and salvation. Now you shall be risen again in the Glory of God. My children shall be all in all to me. I shall reveal all to them that is now unknown. Their knowledge shall be unlimited, shall only be pure. The corrupt shall fade away with him that created it. Your wars shall go with him who caused you to mourn.

All was revealed to you in the old book of Revelation which was to be for the overthrow of the devil's kingdom, but you failed to recognize the truth of my words. I shall now give clear and perfect statements, and not in parables, as my Son spoke in, so that you will more quickly recognize my works, for the time is growing short for the devil's reign. You have had many generations which have given you time for you to reform, to ignore his works. You have had many warnings. Suffered and been healed through my power, and yet ye did not accept me, but the devil in his obnoxious forms.

You used the church as your shield to hide your works from the world, but from Me you can hide nothing, so as you gave Me you received, which was little, for the devil was your master, and you received his reward, which you will now sorely repent, and suffer for, for his is total destruction to the righteous. If I don't come to protect you all. There will reign in your world the bloodiest war in history, for he is determined to destroy all I created. It shall end in peace and tranquillity, but they that caused it shall receive the fall of Babylon, the fall of Jerusalem. Not one stone shall be left, not a moment's peace shall they have, for every nation shall scorn their works as that of the devil. They sowed what they must reap. From generation to generation until every one shall repent in sackcloth and ashes, as they destroyed my children of peace. They chased after the possessions of the devil, money, lust and land, which their Lord God did not see fit to give them, for He knew the power of their arrogance. Ye know, but one King of Eternal Glory should govern my children, and that was I, the King of Glory, to reign when there should be no more fear, but everlasting peace and happiness. No pride nor arrogance shall exist in my reign.

So now, my children, make peace and all live in brotherly and sisterly love of God to each other, that I may give you a perfect life.

AND A NEW WORLD

Your pride has been great. You have centered yourselves to be exclusive with satan. You have scorned until you must now fall. The master shall be as his servant, and the servant of the master, that is what the devil has given you to struggle through.

I deny the forms in your church, but the love, sincerity of your hearts, I must gratefully receive. Oh, how perfect shall the lives be who receive me. I will ever be with you to receive your repentance and love, for I am always with thee. Do not fear in the darkest hour for I will give you peace, and all your desires shall be satisfied and multiplied.

I am the harvest of plentiful, for all is mine, My promises are truth, while those of the devil have been lies from the beginning. He has now made you all pay doubly for his pleasures, at the expense of my sorrow, for such it is when I see my children whom I love suffer. Their loss is my loss until I redeem them. He will make lightning and thunder from his evil as never before. He will fill the air with myriads of his war devils. He will destroy hamlets and great cities. He will turn you into the cold and brutal atmosphere. He will destroy, without sympathy, every soul that is mine. He will starve you and then, in the end, he will deliver all to me to raise again, and my kingdom shall be love, peace, good will on earth to all men. How many times those beautiful words have been lip service with no sincerity, soon to be forgotten. But now you shall always remember my words, for I shall give you them in truth. Should my words have been remembered, you would be happy and prosperous today, but how the works of the devil have caught you in his gilded net and all your earthly titles must vanish and no more recognized, for they are of the devil. You shall receive in place the title of Christ, the Savior of man. I will raise you never to fall. My words and works are everlasting peace. My pathway shall be paved with gold from heaven, that which shineth in beauty and holiness, not that that perishes at the will of the devil, among ye speculators who are his workers of iniquity, the downfall of my children. You drove them into poverty and your mind was stronger with the devil, so you must fall, as did your brother. You have cheated your laborer of his hire. You have raised the prices of food to accumulate wealth the devil will take with him, for I shall destroy all ill-gotten goods, so prepare, ye sons of the devil. My crushed shall become tenfold greater than you, and they shall look at you falling under the false accumulations of his reign. Never has such graft and duplicity existed in my world as at present. The sagacity of the devil's children has been great, but as every hair on their head is numbered, so shall be the debts they will pay the devil for.

A NEW REVELATION

Many will not believe, but to wait until the hour of desolation comes, when I shall suffer, suffer with you, to see what he has done to you to bring your fall, before ye will receive me, I, your Creator of every good. I am with ye always, my dear children, to bless you in your sorrows, for they are mine to endure as well as you, for it is of the evil one, who is still prowling, seeking whom he may devour. His revenge is bitter to those I love and cherish, that is why so many innocent suffer with the wicked, for me to struggle, to battle with him for their deliverance into my heavenly home. Don't forget my promise. Come all of ye that are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. I have overcome the beast of prey and am happy, for I saved another from him. Now, therefore, I beg of you all to receive my promise of truth which comes from your heavenly Father, who seeth you in secret, and nowhere except where I am can you be successful but for a time, for when the Son of Man cometh He shall condemn all that is perishable from the flashlight of satan.

A NEW REVELATION

I send forth many to do my work, but before they have proceeded any way, satan comes to them and shows them the elements of his life and they fall to live the two lives, which is impossible, for good and evil cannot harmonize. That is why your churches are falling, because of the two elements. God and the devil are at variance. There must be perfection where I exist. So now, my children, enter your places to adore me, as I do you in heavenly love. Humble until every spark of pride and selfishness has vanished, and I will hear and list you among my chosen, for I love you, for love is life. It is God, and God, your Master, is all power, so through true love and not seeming love I will prosper you from one generation to another until you become perfect in Christ. All power shall be yours and your children. Your progeny now fall and grow weaker from generation to generation to those who revel in the thought of inheritance of flesh and blood, and not of the spirit, so abide in me and I in you and I will give you the fat of the land and you shall ever be prolific in all you sow. I will give you seasons of prosperity. The lambs shall graze in your meadows in every month of the year, so that you shall no more struggle for the earthly sustenance of your body. I am the way and the truth in promises to those who follow me. I shall feed my lambs that satan starved, I shall give you in return sunshine for clouds and tears of sorrow. You shall no longer want for anything. My laws give which is perfect. The door of paradise is ever open to you to receive. Ask, knowing that ye have, and it shall be given you. Knock and it shall be opened to you. All the gifts that I have given you will come tenfold in glory, which you struggled to learn from each other in books, but not of me who was the giver of all gifts. Now I shall prove to you by the writing of this book, this dear child has given to the world, through no study from books, but received as crystal waters from a celestial fountain. She writes my works at such a rapid pace it is most pleasing to see. She has so many sheets written from the hour of 9 A. M. until 11 A. M., which is beyond the power of any material writer, so by obeying my holy laws of love to me, I shall make her an avenue for many of my works to reveal my powers to you, that you may be saved from turmoil and strife. There is not a lily in the field clothed in its robes of purity, not a flower that blooms in their glorious colors but I breath into them the spirit of beauty that makes you love them, so it shall be to you that love me, not a thought, but love, shall I give you, that you may reap all that is of the immortal beauties of life and salvation. There is not a cloud or sun, nor a beautiful sunshine, but I am behind it, that you may enjoy what the beast is now trying to destroy for me, but in 1919 I shall place him in chains and smoke, as he has tried to place my dear ones in. This eternal hellish war he brought through his accursed pride. He prepared them well in his weapons of destruction. I warned you all in the great book of prophecies, but you heeded not, so when he found his prey, his mover of all that is of the darkest he gave them that were with him in their material education the power to manufacture the weapons of his hell, which you will all perceive when you pass out of this body. His is a darkness and misery that cannot be conceived of by you that obey his commands. I told you, there would be war in the heavens and divers of other calamities before the end of his reign, but you ignored my words, so now you must abide by my warning. Oh, how I suffer when I see my dear ones falling into his fiery furnace, piled upon one another and he reaping his victory over me until I give him fair play before you to know the difference in our reigns. Go protect my suffering and dying through love for me and mine. Not through any earthly honor at the close of his bloodthirsty work, for it shall not be written for any future children to read. For I shall destroy every leaflet of those who try to accumulate money by recalling his hellfire to my world that see you. I shall destroy many things that now exist which is not of me, so, therefore, what is not of me I shall destroy wholly. Such are my revelations to the coming new world which shall have but one King of Peace and Glory to succor the sorrowful. Look up to me dear ones in your crucial moments of suffering and I will give you peace and comfort.

I will make the birds to know. I shall teach the animals to love you as they love me. All shall be one halo of love under my reign. I am the only Father that can give you all, and satan is the only one that can destroy. I am the builder of everything.

My dear children, there are many worlds of which I am the Father, but you are the youngest and most ignorant of my power. There, satan is not known, my children are of love and peace, they know my love and all obey, so shall you be when you know me as they do. There are many worlds of celestial glory that know no sorrow and pain, no wars and bloody wounds of satan the devil.

A NEW REVELATION

I am He that has come to feed His starving lambs from slaughter. Now, after revolution and counter revolution, you will come to me to feed you, for satan and his craft have longed to bury you in slavery and misery. But I, your Lord and Master, shall say nay. Remember, my son, the poor Lazarus and the rich man. You shall no longer rule by your wealth, for I shall tear down every bar of your bank, I shall melt your hearts of stone with the fire of my love, until there shall not exist one hungry soul to mourn. This is my word and seal to every man that is now serving the devil for his gold that shall perish with him. My reign shall be for each and every soul, for love and kindness shall rule my children. They will not be slaughtered, but delivered in peace and glory. The land shall all be used. There shall be no idle soul, nor soil, for I, your Creator, have labored for you since the beginning, and you have turned me down for satan and his glory, your fall and destruction.

There shall be no more barren lands, no flies, nor diseases to eat your crops, but the seasons of loving kindness to my children shall ever reign. You shall all dwell in peace and love. Every soul shall know the other. You will no longer linger in the coldness of ceremony, but sweet repose. I shall bring you all in harmony when you can sing in heart, Peace on earth and heavenly love to my Father, who has redeemed me from the sorrows of evil. There are many moons and many suns. There are many stars, that do not shine to you as but an atom. There is wonderful beauty with golden gates. They know no darkness. Their life is perpetual bliss, and that is now what I must work for, when the evil has delivered to me from the relics of his reign. Such are the promises of your heavenly Father to His slaughtered lambs. I have children of celestial beauty that shine like the glorious sunset. Yours are the homes of sorrow and darkness. They shall labor with me to visit you and comfort you, while I release you from his reign, but it will not come at once. Your hearts are hardened against me. You believe in him, in all his works and deeds until I take the scales from your blinded eyes and the callous from your heart. You shall smell fire and brimstone until he is put to rest in his reign of evil.

I shall give him every law of his reign to take with him, who has plotted his works to complete the destruction. Everything shall go in the past kingdoms. You that love me I shall call and you will come. He shall be burned in the year 1919 anno domini. So now you know when I am to come to reclaim my possessions. Even through fire you have been purified. I shall grasp you from his fiery fangs, the tools of his hell of pride, from this have you all fallen, from the love of flesh and bone, but not of the spirit, all that is corrupt you have cultivated in your palaces, where I do not come, but in the home of my suffering and persecuted children who toil in love to me for their daily comforts, for him such is the Kingdom of Heaven, and all of you who cast the stones that felled, must pay your debts. You shall stumble in all you do, until every dollar of false accumulation shall go. Such is a pollution and stench to me. I shall take the keys from satan and open that den of vast wealth, that rules my starving children. I hold the keys of heaven. Not Peter, but me, the Creator of all that is. My children, you know my words are your law. My dear brothers and sisters, open up your dens and come out in the world and work for me. I asked ye not to persecute yourselves for me, but to go in the world to feed and protect my lambs. Enjoy all that I have given you. I gave you the sunshine, the forest clothed in its beauty, the warbling of the birds were for you. All that was made by Me was for you, my dear persecuted lambs, for such you are. You shall no longer remain so when I come. I shall give you what is for you. I shall deliver you to the laws of love, which is mine. Your music I love, but your idolatry I abhor. You shall hear and sing the music of the heavenly spheres, which I will give you in my reign.

There is no secret I cannot penetrate. There is no door I cannot open. So open before I call you to account. There will be clanking of teeth from the jaws of satan, but I care not, for I will overthrow until every law is broken and my love reigns and covers the universe, which is mine. There shall be no wars, no bloodshed to gain my power in destroying your material work, for then I shall crush every one in his earthly power. I know only love and peace. You have murdered and slaughtered for me and I know you not in your bloodthirst. So be calm and fill your hearts before my coming in brotherly love, and I shall repay you tenfold. I want no more religious wars of the devil's reign, for many will fall, not for me, but for the devil, who has reigned twenty thousand and seven hundred years, the exact date that I cast him down for his reign of pride he brought to you poor, doomed ones. I know every hour of the night and day of time, and my word is the living law. Fear me not, but love me, for my reign of peace and love must come. As your churches are today, close them. Open them by my law of love and universal brotherhood. I shall crush every doorway to the house filled with hypocrisy, which has been from beginning. I know ye not, only by your love, sanctified in truth.

You shall lead a life of perpetual glory in my reign. There is no more sorrow in the new world for them. The father of sorrows and evil has passed away, no more to return. My children shall live in a paradise of glory. The flowers shall grow without cultivation. There shall be no poison in my flowers or plants. There shall nobody be harmed by anything I create. Neither is there now if you know me in soul, the harmony key of Divine love, the only cure for all material ills of the flesh which I know not. I am of the Spirit, and ye are the living temples that hold the soul. I know you through the spirit body which I am the Father of. He that knoweth me, knoweth everlasting joy, for I am the giver of every blessing that is real. You that are blessed with the laws of satan are ever in peril of some sort. Is that not what hastens you to his kingdom of eternal gloom, until I come to redeem you? For not one thing that I ever created shall remain with him. You shall be purged and repurged until every evil he left in the life of them I love will be made pure and divine through your loving Father. Your heaven shall be everywhere, for there I will be. The cross you shall no longer bear, but in place it shall be a harbinger of delight to the soul that loves me. Therefore, children of the devil, obey me before the end of your time, for I will cut it short. The scales shall fall from your eyes, they shall fall that you shall see as never before. I will make your voices as the babbling brooks. Your word shall be spoken in purity as the babbling brooks instead of cursing in my name, that the devil gave me when he came to take my kingdom until I gave him time to relent, but he kept up his tyranny and pride. He instituted false laws, gave every attraction to the proud and haughty. It mattered not how many of my dear children were slain for the possession of lands and thrones, so he was satisfied that he had cruelly persecuted me. Now I shall destroy all his thrones and his host and purify your lives so that the stench of the flies that have created billions of germs to destroy life shall pass. Your life shall be as perfect as my laws.

There is no life like the Christ life to those who want to enjoy all the gifts of eternal life from which all things proceed. I am the glory of all that is perfect, by following my laws all must come that has already been given you, except that you open the divine bank of unlimited gifts, you cannot receive it for I am the possessor of all that is and you are of me and I of you. So, therefore, how can you obtain from me, unless you are of me in my own being? Harmony, the true key to all unfoldment that shall never fail, through that I give thee. It shall go with thee, to give thee joy in thy last days. Age shall not weaken your memory, for that which I create fadeth not. It is an everlasting memory. The flower that blooms from the living temple shall never fade. The colors of you shall ever stay with you. Your sight shall never fail you, for it will be the sight of the soul that a few of my children now possess through spirituality, but you shall see and know all things, like the souls free from the mortal body, I shall purify the body, clean it from lust, the joy of the devil that destroys my children. There is no mystery about my book. It is plain, simple truth, nothing to doubt. You shall know me greater than you did satan, for his colors failed him. I am of thee, but he was not of thee or your memory would not have failed you. Your goods would not have left you. What I give abounds plentifully, never to go. So you see I am truth and all power. Thou shalt now know the truth for I shall place before you signs of my powers. You shall see the maimed walk, the blind to see, just as I gave in former days, before the people began to live by creeds and brought hatred and selfishness among themselves, that forced them to slaughter. By your earthly laws you ignored the first and only powers of mine. Oh, thou blind ones open and see before it is too late that you shall be gleaned as the wheat and not left with the cockle, the tares, for that is no good and belongs to all that must go, so shall pass them also who live in the devil's laws. His sun is midnight darkness hidden in all his deeds. Mine is the brightest sunshine shown before you all. He rules on the dark plane and I on the light, where all things must progress, but by the night all darkness rules, when his angels of hell are loose and prowling to destroy my children. You plot in darkness by his guidance to destroy all your true happiness, your children, for as the father and mother, so shall your progeny be. So be careful, my dear blind children, what you do in your dark moments, it shall be brought out in my light, my law, until your conscience shall burn as fire.

Your children shall bring you to anxiety and shame, you sow the seed of destruction from generation to generation. You, in years,

A NEW REVELATION

bring insanity, infections, diseases of every kind, when you should be perfect in mind and able to see all things through my laws. The divine mind that holds the full possession of everything in life, I will give thee, but the devil takes it away. I give you knowledge to judge good from bad, and when you select your badge you must wear it. But I have the comfort to know I can call you and you must obey. There is no law greater than the law of God. I send rain and sunshine. I give crops to give you life, and without my love for you, you would perish. So see what a small portion of the evil you are to be ruled by. Soon mortal must fade and die, for my works are perfect, and you are mine. Your corn shall be corn, your wheat shall be wheat. You shall not gather a mixture, for nothing from God is imperfect, but whole and complete. So, therefore, you now know what to expect when I rule my children. When you plant your crops you shall have no fear of destruction, before they are garnered, for I shall make all seasons profitable. Now, my children, is this not a glorious promise to those that love me and obey me? I give you love, I expect love of the highest, not the love of the Pharisee, which has been a curse in all your churches. I wish you not to extortion in public places, give your thousands for my love when it cannot last but for a time. The show has gone, the excitement is quiet and you return to your same old works in secret, where you should find me. Seek me in the temple of your heart and I shall give thee. I shall know every desire without a word from your lips, for I know all your wants and shall place it when I test you. You must be weighed and not found wanting in the balance, for mine is true weight, but a few have adhered to it. You have always been found wanting and will be until you use the conscience, my monitor and guide I have placed in every human being to save them. But when you become so greedy for satan's gold, you give him full power. I let you go knowing that you will have to come to me in your disobedience, as a bad child to his father. I love you, do you know I suffer with you when you enter this life with such a burden of debts to pay for your last wrongs, for such is truth, every man to his call. Every soul is waiting to pay his debts when the great call wheel of life comes to you to return and suffer and struggle until you are lifted up to me, then I will cancel your debt and you shall be free. So beware how you deal with your brother and sister for the devil's possessions. He must pay me for my losses as I have said before. There is no sorrow heaven cannot heal. I will take you up in the end and your life shall be love, peace, good will to all. Then you shall prosper in all things. My children are a part of me and I a part of them, therefore I suffer from the works of the devil. He shall be no more, then I shall ever be with you that you may never doubt or fear, but love. Your hearts will be filled with love for each other. You shall share with each other as I have shared with you. I send to the grateful and ungrateful. I know no greed for I am love, and only love perfects my work. If you love your work, you perfect it, so shall it be when I come to you. I am your comforter and when you come I will doubly multiply for you that have lost all through satan and his agents, only to destroy his works and to prove to you the reward you all have received for his pride and love of wealth and filthy titles, he gave you through murdering and plundering of my dear ones, who suffered for the foul titles you claim from his works. I say to each and every child, strike that badge, that name he has given you. I will take it from you, I will tear asunder until you will suffer the tortures he made my loved ones suffer for his hellish honors. If you don't destroy his of flesh and blood and take the spiritual banner in your homes to unfold it to the coming of the future works I give you, I shall bring you to him that gave it, for he shall be no more. When all kings fall with the devil's leavetaking, I demand of each and every one to destroy what he gave you. You will no longer be the princess nor prince from royalty, but from my reign, the queen of love, spirituality, which brings freedom and perfect happiness. What are ye doing now? Causing my dear ones to suffer from the effects of his hellish work. Would you have done this had you been of me? Hear my words of warning. Your fathers and daughters would have been in perfect happiness, peace and love. So lay away your titles to the flames as I shall do him that has caused you such sorrow. You shall take your gold now and help the suffering lambs instead of paying it for his crown of hell, pride and false happiness.

Now you shall all be one dear brother and sisterhood. You will not assemble in bunches, clique in wealthy classes to destroy my gifted children, but talents, harmony and honesty shall reign in place. So you that ignore my work which is to build the new world must become as your servants, your servant must be as you. My world will become as one with my other worlds of love. You shall see as they can see, and know all as they do, for talent is of me, I created your highest gifts, and only through pure minds can you create from, when you produce. Spiritually, I give you the power to go deeper and deeper into my great storehouse of wisdom and knowledge. The unlimited bank of divine knowledge to drink from the river of pearls and priceless rubies that money cannot buy. The crystal waters from which every one that is of me shall drink and never thirst. This is my sacred promise to you in truth, for I have selected this spiritualized child to deliver only what is mine. She cannot speak, that is of other than me, for she is of me and I of her. She has paid me for all her indebtedness of her past and now I have given her in return all power and love to do my works, she shall touch you and you shall believe in me, for she shall save you for me. She has forsaken all worldly pride and given me her life that I may give her the chosen work, she is one of my number called. Ye that read my book and believe in her, my chosen one, shall be healed until everlasting glory. She shall not only give you health and joy, but all that is from my kingdom. There have been others, but this is my last law and covenant given you before the end of satan's reign.

AND A NEW WORLD

You that are narrow-minded may revile her much, look for your reward, for this is of me, my holy promise to those who love me. You shall not do my work for money, but what you chose to give my chosen ones to help each other. Money does not bring true, solid happiness, but the temporary. I bring you all, for I possess all and ever will. When I call ye must obey. Ye cannot say hither or thither, nor rebuke me. I am he that saves. You must pay here or there for every wrong. So cast the destroyer away quickly.

All, all you who have stolen by speculating must give up. All you that have deceived and lied must revere me and speak the truth, for I am the truth. I do not give you dust for rain, stone for meat, but the devil does. He gives you pain and sickness of the worst. You dilute everything you make so to ruin the stomachs and bring death. You steal in your measures, you steal, steal and do until almost the last moment when I call you to account, for the time has come for you to pay your debt. This is my last warning. I ask you to obey my law. Release my children you are starving, ye agents of satan. Reduce your prices, that they may no longer live under the yoke of the devil, for if you don't do justice to my laws I will take all and scatter you to the four winds, to every part of the earth you shall wander with no reward. You must suffer as others have suffered. You have no principle but satan and you must suffer under him until you feel and know my words are truth.

I am now going to visit Italy, Spain and every country that is lurking under the false laws of satan. You must give up your idols and come on your knees to the ever living. The songs of freedom shall ever be sung when you see my works. You shall no longer be poor and rich to hurt and starve each other. Ye shall all get your share, for there is plenty for you all. I gave you land to multiply on, but you left them for the gilded pleasures of satan. You shall take up the waste lands. You shall go back to your farms and build up the waste lands by beautifying your villages. When I say go, ye must, for you shall enjoy the beauty of nature as never before. Your minds will be peace. You will no longer destroy your homes for the harlot, she must go for she is hellfire and rot within her. She shall fall unto her own pit, so shall the whore-monger that smileth upon the scarlet robe of sin and follows her into her secret dens. She must go first of all. She is like the sealion, sinking, sinking, until she can sink no more. Then I shall visit the hypocrite that waves the white flag to the world, while his heart is mantled in the black robe of hell. The doors shall be opened, there shall be no more secrets. You shall each and every one know the liar and the thief as I do, for you that are of me shall know and place your foot upon him for me. He shall not prevail among you. Your laws are foul and a stench to me. They are like a musty snake den. The grafter saves himself and his mates through the power of money.

I will purify your laws and make my chosen to rule and know me by my words only, the honest and talented man can make laws, for I am the lawmaker. Mine are the divine laws. No other shall exist.

There will be but one channel through which everything shall increase. No longer can man lead two lives, for I know all things, and he shall perish with the perishable. That is the last reign of terror. My reign will be when the heavens open and you will rejoice at my coming, for I will take you to the homes of peace, not to the homes of open hell, where nothing but strife exists, debauch, drunkenness and passion, the love of the devil. There shall not be born a child in my reign, that will be blind. It shall see with double sight, wisdom. There shall not be seen a cripple, not a drunkard, but shall fall in the pit, never to rise. I give him a mind, knowledge, and he must know me. The wild beast shall not harm you for they shall even know me not to hurt my children, for it shall be a world of peace and love, as my other children. The streets shall be cleaned. You shall no longer stand on the streets to lure each other into dens of vice, for I shall slay you in your acts of evil. The flesh must be healed of its wounds. The flesh and blood must be made clean and he or she that tries to renew the devil's work I will slay. You shall drink the cup of everlasting judgment of sorrow. Oh, ye ministers with high looks and the money love, beware of my coming, for I know your hearts. You have been living two lives. You shall throw your money in the winds. It shall go, for it was made of lies and not from your hearts. Yea, can I not see and know every secret thought? Ye that are sanctified in me, I shall exalt, and he that is pompous I shall say depart from me, I know ye not, for ye have committed the deadliest sin.

I shall travel to every corner of the earth and every part of it, that they that I have breathed the breath of life into must know me and be happy. They shall know me greater for they have been kept in darkness so long and they have my deepest sympathy. There is no life without me, for I am God, Life and Salvation. Upon me depends everything and you have long depended on shadows. It shall be, oh ye wing of sorrow, ye have taken flight and gone, and the dove of peace and love has come, never to leave us. That shall be the song from every heart. My sun shall not be the old sun. It shall shine in such brilliancy and beauty, your heart shall rejoice. It shall fill your homes in plenty. From every part the seasons shall be alike, so that every child shall thank me. I am slow, but I am sure in everything, so when you ask, trusting and looking, I will give you. There shall be no longer sorrow in your homes. I am coming to bring you mana from heaven as well as food for your stomachs. Ye shall know me in perfection. You shall have heavenly happiness in the mind as well as a satisfied stomach. I am not part of one and not part of another, but the perfect whole, and all that rejoice in me shall live in perfect bliss. So, my dear children, I only ask you for your love in return for the harvest of plenty. I that dearly love my lambs, that have so painfully suffered meek and mild I shall reward. You shall no longer rebuff each other, but love in my love, which is ever true, so you cannot deceive, for

as you deceive you shall be deceived. You shall not find the thief in a gentleman's garb as today, but his countenance shall be such that will make you stagger. This is the judgment I will brand him with that he may fall, until every one shall know him, until he leaves his wickedness and falls to me. Then I will take him in consideration to his crimes. It can be no other way, for each and every one must make just settlement. I am going to let you know the responsibilities you have given others to endure. I am a just God. You shall read my book of warning to my children so that you may be prepared when I call. No one knoweth the hour, but you shall know the year, so that I have given you ample time to love and protect each other in my name. I am not a jealous God. Satan is of that make, that is why you have it. I am the God of divine love and glory which, as mine, you shall and must be sometime. In the end all is mine. Matters not how foul your deed. You look for me in the dark hour of despair and get relief, but you must suffer much, for he makes you suffer. Satan knows he is causing me grief. Affection he knows not, but hell is his only life, and he enjoys distressing me. I suffer to give my children a chance to crush the wrong they have done me, that they may enjoy perfectly the change brought out by laboriously working for me. I am the King of all Kings. The King of Love and Salvation. I never made a king. Now you shall see when you shall all dwell in peace and prosperity, in perfect bliss, I, the Father, will give you, and that the devil has given you must depart.

You shall no longer have a president to dictate to you and a band of money gangsters seeking to devour for the love of money to be bought off by tips that no one sees but your God. I know your every act and shall take away every dollar from you that has been made by graft, so be slow in your hellish work. I am near you as well as my angels, registering all you do. You shall have no peace until every dollar is gone, and your new life shall be clean money. All shall be pure in my coming to you who love me. I give, to you that don't, I take, not leaving an atom untouched until all is given that is not of me. The lambs will call me and I will hear, the sheep will call me and I will look. So you wooly sheep in your warm and comfortable coat, go out to your suffering neighbor and give him part of your coat in my name, that I alone will know it, that I may reward you openly, for I am the open door, giving and taking. I shall take no more but freely give.

A NEW REVELATION

But thou shalt return and till my soil, thou shalt find no labor through me for I shall provide the hire. You shall rejoice at the abundance I give you. Your fruit shall be changed and of delicious flavor. They shall feed you for strength. Now some can eat and some cannot, such is not of me. I shall make perfect that you can eat of everything I make. No serpent sting can hurt you. He is gone of the devil, and I am of the new generation. The first and the last that was foretold in your book of prophets, you most emphatically denied. Were there not my children endowed with gifts which I gave them so as not to permit the devil full power to destroy all I made? I limited him and he limited you in your progression, so as to wound me, but no power is greater than I. None ever shall be. The battlefield is my sorrow now, for satan has his harvest, not knowing I can open every door of hell and say, depart hence. You have suffered your time out and I shall have the iron chains he had bound you with to torture me. His students that have been studying for years to rob and destroy the innocent lambs that served me and those of his own in throwing the furnaces of fire and brimstone and filling the heavens with wars, shall fall. We see it all and it keeps my children busy taking care of mine and he his and rejoicing at my sorrow. I shall deliver each and every one to his home in paradise after the close of the war. Then I shall open the doors of heaven I have closed on satan and you shall marvel at what is from me.

I shall open the windows of your soul, that you may see and know. I shall regenerate every one and make new that which was old. I shall have no relics, but the love you have given to satan for thousands of years, I now desire you to ignore your creeds and become one and a part of me, thy God. Your cup give to me, I will fill it, I mean your heart. I mean no form of worship except that of the heart. You that have preached for a profit I shall call to his own, for I shall inspire every one to his own that he will not be mislead and disappointed as he has been. I shall inspire thee to do my work that it may come from the heart. You shall no longer scorn those that are of me for the love of your false society, the foulest reign of the devil's pride hardens your heart. It lead you to the open doors of hell and then he gives you your check. He has filled the prisons, the asylums and hospitals. He has built you palaces that have fallen. He has built Babylon upon Babylon and destroyed, and you held to him. Now mine shall ever stand for they shall be built of the spirit. Those who have bred this war and followed the devil in his brutal crimes shall fall and suffer for generations to come, until their eyes shall be opened. Your prayers are of no avail, that have employed the strong minds I have given you in serving him in his lust which you have enjoyed since the beginning. You burned my dear ones and so shall ye burn as never before. Your conscience shall rip you from your head to your feet and those that came after you, that follow you. You shall be a country to yourself, an abomination to your Lord. You have prayed to the devil to help you in this bloody destruction. Your ministers on your pulpits gloried in him, now you must suffer as you obeyed the devil, take his reward. Depart to your own country until you have learned the truth, that I am the God of love and not of hell. The full time is near expired for my return to claim everything that is mine.

You shall come to me not through fear but sanctified in love that I may know you, for I am sanctified in love, which inspires wherever I am. So then you will know I am with you and hear your prayers. I am the Father of many host, all are of me and I of them, and they are perfect. You neglect me and scorn me in every part of the world, or this bloodshed would not be. It was my warning to you through St. John for you to see the damage the devil would do you, but you would not heed me, but now he has brought it to you for my suffering until he has been slain with his comrades.

There is not a child on earth that has not suffered through him. No, not one, for not one is perfect, and I, the Lord and Master, am perfect, so must ye be.

Oh, ye that are sanctified through me I will give you abundance for your real devotion. You shall see and know all things. Thou shalt heal without drugs. Thou shalt bind up broken bones in my name and they shall heal. No sorrow shall enter the gates of Salvation, for I hold all power to claim my own. He that hath not wisdom with all his glory is as a shadow to me. I have given every creature I sent into the world a certain part of wisdom, but went blind in his fascination, and now, through the fall of satan, he must recall what he threw away from my creation. Oh, those of mighty power, you shall crumble as the dust under your servant's feet, for satan has brought you low to make you suffer for me, for he knows his work is finished, and he is my prisoner. There is no shadow I cannot make real. Ye may be of the weakest, I can make ye whole, for thou art of me and I of thee. How can my love fail one of my own? They shall seek me in every quarter of the globe, for I am the Father of my children, civilized and uncivilized. You know I am something and you worship me through conscience, a greater being than yourselves. There shall be no rock great enough to crush you.

Before my coming you shall see signs in the heavens which will make you wonder. Ye shall pass it by as some planetary disturbance. You may forget, but I say take heed. I am kind enough to warn you that you may not be those of satan that shall be bound hand and foot in iron chains. His weld is broken, he can no longer weave it for my loved ones. It is he and not me that bids you to follow him, so that you may suffer with him. There is a God and there is a devil in form who has prowled the earth for twenty thousand and seven hundred years, and ye were kept blind, that ye would not see his hideous form, but I gave unto my chosen few the power to see him that they may know and speak the truth, and to the one who writes my book I have given power to see all, for she has been born of spiritual visions to facts that cannot be denied, but proven. I gave her visions of hell when she was in high social position. I wanted her to know through the power of the book of the prophets which she should choose, and she suffered much which was to bind her closely to my powers, that she should not fall from my embrace, weighed and not found wanting in the balance. She cried to me constantly in her heart and I saved her every time, that she might ever cling to me. It was not of man that she was saved, but through me.

She was called from her past life before her mission was complete, and when the wheel turned for her to return to this life again she came in the highest hour of morn and month of fruitage which was left to gather all the fruits of the tree of good and evil, and she plucked that which was the choicest, that of the spirit and not of the flesh. She discarded the world for me in the deepest humility. She found that which cleared her of every fear and the curse of the devil. I brought her into the arms of a spiritual mother who had suffered much and came to me. I then brought the crown of thorns from her brow that the devil had wreathed her in, for she was struggling for many years to know me perfect that she could not fear. I called mother home to me and gave her a home of glory and peace and hers after her. So from this, dear mothers, I want you to come out from the worldly fascinations and to me, that I may bring you comforts that I have brought to the dear mother of this, my child, that I much revere. To her I will give much, she was pure in mind, she was not of drink, of lust, such as you are, for she shall never leave a curse upon her flesh and blood. She shall spring forth of the spirit, which giveth all things. You shall be drawn by me from the dark, shady pit of the devil to reap the rewards of the spirit. If you live in me and my words in you I shall grant all your wants. Now all ye mothers of high social position who forget me in your pride, the devil's works, work out your own salvation with struggles upon struggle, for what ye sow ye must certainly reap, and your harvest is with you. For me you shall destroy every title of the devil, who gave them through pride. You worshiped it, now it is placed to your credit. You shall clean your lusty minds. I know who you shall be and not what you are. I, of the spirit, is your Master, and you of the flesh and bone and corrupt blood which has now been the destruction of all that is a stench to them that is glorified. Through me know that you shall have your fall. For I can raise you and make you lowly, which is the reward of all the proud and haughty. You have only what the devil brought you through his sagacity so that you might hurt most cruelly the widows and orphans, and mutilate them slowly, while they were paying the debts for their wrongs. In place of tearing them you should have built them, but not of mine, the meek and persecuted are mine, and shall rule the earth in love and honesty. Ye shall stumble when you see the change I have made, and then when you rise from your fall you shall see my words are law. It shall be a haven of rest and happiness. Ye shall have, in place of the vile and filthy music of hell, which invites them that follow in his work to the secret dens that curse from generation, music of the brightest and holiest. You shall chant and play on stringed instruments as never before. It is the highest that brings your soul to me, I created it. You shall dance in the glories of me. You shall play your cymbals in honor to me, and I will hear you as in prayer, for you shall be giving me your love in spirit. All you that are of that talent shall first be made clean, for you shall receive me in the music of the spheres. Your everlasting and eternal love which shall bring you everlasting life—there shall be no rest without me. The life of satan has never been anything but struggle without rest, but now and then, how you shall look up to me to help you when you see him in his midnight sea of darkness falling and falling in his struggling and looking for help in exhaustion. Oh, ye bleating sheep, I look; when my lambs call, I hear.

You shall see the fall of Babylon once more, never to return, for it is God's last sorrow, all of the devil has been forever burned. The beauties of God's perfect creation shall ever reign. You shall have the beautiful life of all the other great worlds. Venus, Jupiter and Mars arrayed in their glory which no mind can imagine. Their lives are glorious with me. In their baths of crystal waters shining in gold, their beautiful forest fragrant in the sweetest perfumes. Their birds of beautiful plumage chirping the sweetest music that earth hath never heard. Her fountains of colored and crystal waters flowing from lake to lake. Her paths of pearls and precious stones that this world has never seen, because they were not of the fallen. They remained pure and true to their God and that was their reward. So now you can see what sickening sorrow and strife you live in to my chosen. There is much more wonderful for you to yet know. The beautiful and gentle animals lie at the feet of my children with no fear, but love among them, while yours war and prowl the wild mountains to devour you through the scent of your flesh, which is of the mortal. Nothing can hurt the divine, for it is all love, healing and calmness, glorious peace. I am of you and you of me. There is no color in the heavens so glorious as the colors of the other worlds, magnificent, radiant. Every soul has the face of holiness, radiant in youth, such is the soul face. For there is no limit to the soul power, in it is imbedded all the celestial glories and talents of God. So proceed to sanctify it in my love and I will give unseen powers and wonders. It is unlimited. My spirit forces it to work. I am of both soul and spirit divine. Thou shalt no more fear each other and not know but love, and know as I know you. I am the Father and you are of me, and you shall inherit all that is of me which is perfect. Not a flower can bloom without me, not a sun, moon and stars could you enjoy without me and you know me only as your last hope when I am with you always. What can I give you when your heart is so cold? The devil first and I last and now I am to rescue you all from his eternal destruction through his bloody war of pride and greed fighting for possessions which are mine and I will give to the lambs and his sheep shall know my power. Have not your great palaces and kings been destroyed from generations? Since the beginning there has been bloodshed and blind sheep dancing to satan's music. Have you not been rich and poor? A raise and a constant fall through the power of wealth which is satan's power, and your temporary happiness and deepest sorrow? His power shall pass totally out and the honest man of God shall control everything in the new era, and you dare not disobey me, for I will cut you off at a moment's notice to share with the devil and his dark ones in prison. Your atmosphere is thick unto a stench with his evil spirits seeking whom they may devour. Watch your companions, your associations will lead you into the vilest crimes that he may place you in the darkest cell and place you on the devil's platform, the scaffold. Your last age is yet more violent, for he knows he is soon to fall and all his works with him. He has robbed my dear ones from unfolding and keeping the talents of me, by leading them into the dens of hell, which shall totally be wiped out, and all money made by it shall go. I mean the devil's liquid that has led to every crime. Sweet wines and crystal waters that shall not hurt. The vintage of the vine shall no longer poison you, for you shall be so strong and pure, you cannot be hurt. It is of me you live of all my promises that shall manifest.

AND A NEW WORLD

There is no care where God is, all is here for you to ask for and receive. I am the way and the life to those that love me. There is no home that I am not there, for without me there is strife and sorrow. When I come there is peace, even to the children receive me through you, for you are the channels through which I create all good, and the devil for all evil, so, therefore, I ask you to let the love of God dwell in your household that you may never fall, that your children will be a blessing to you in your last days instead of sorrow, with fall after fall until they are no more. I shall lead them to all that is theirs. But the grafters must expect what they sowed. What they stole they must return, for it must go with him that gave it, that is the devil. Heed me, for I speak with words of power, that is of fire. Quenching every evil, purifying as I go until everything will be perfect in my reign. I have been most enduring, and patient since the beginning, and life has been a continual failure. Those who truthfully obeyed and loved me had to contend with the prickling thorns of the devil, that they might suffer. I did not give you the bitter cup to drink from. Mine was the cup of joy, love and peace. Satan loved to taunt those who loved me and placed his murderers, thieves and liars in their path, that they would suffer and fall. But now you grafters, high-headed politicians, kings, murderers, imperialism, what is your reward? I gave the cup of love and you took the cup of gall, and you have had the full benefits. You high-headed females of the devil who set yourself apart from the pure minded, ye shall have your share. You are the ring-leaders of pride, which I hate. You are no nearer me than the public harlot, for you live in secret. I am greater than the world. I see all, there is no darkness for me. Mine is the everlasting light which can penetrate every corner of the globe in an instant, so beware ye, that are doing your secret works. I know you and every one shall wear the sign of the reign of satan on his face, that all my chosen will escape him. In place of sheaves of wheat you will gather thorns and thistles until you have cultivated the soil, that you can raise naught but abundant sheaves laden plentifully. Can I promise more than love? For it is that which perfects all things. Harmony only prevails where love exists, and therefore you must increase perfectly. You gown in your royal robes, in your finest linen to deceive the world, with hearts as black as midnight in the ocean storms. Clean your hearts, let your conscience admonish you and you will have no more storms at sea, for that is all your lives are or has been since the beginning. You leave the world in grandeur, thinking you have made peace with your God, but thou knowest thou shalt be received as the poorest beggar, not as much so, for he has toiled in sorrow and as a Lazarus I received him joyfully. Let thy coming into my fold be as thy going out, for this ye must expect. As thou hast lived, so shall I receive thee. According to thy works I shall judge ye. In my reign I shall make all my laws your laws, so that there shall be no more continual strife. No occasions for long sessions of your governments. You will govern in truth and honesty or be stricken under my law, no more to be known by your fellowman. I shall cast out every lying tongue, so that he shall speak no more. For I am thy Lord and Master, the Creator of every human being, and ye shall obey me. My law is your law. My love is your love. You shall no more hurt, but love as I have loved you and freely given sunshine and harvest to him that even gave his harlots, giving him ample time to know me, but he would not. Yea, what can I give you now in my reign, but what thou hast sown? From good proceedeth good, from harm, harm. Thy crops are being harvested and the harvest will soon be at an end.

A NEW REVELATION

You will lay down your bloody weapons and bow to my law, peace and love to humanity. Then shall thou burst forth as a bud into the flower, the ever blooming flower of harmony and progression. There shall be no more kings to rule you, when I have finished my work. All shall be as one dear brotherhood of love and peace. All shall share alike. Those that you have slaughtered, my lambs, I have taken to rest and peace until they have learned the holy laws. My babes, the good, my dear lambs, are with me in glory, as ye shall be that love me.

Satan and his host shall go down to their doom of darkness until their end.

Then is all pure and undefiled and I will reign in glory. Well may you prepare to meet me when you realize the change.

Your loved ones are rejoicing in heaven today, for they know my time is soon here to open the heavens and rejoice at my rule, when they will no longer be separated from those they love. They shall rejoice as well as you, for then there will be no separation, no law of the devil to persecute those that gave them the happiness of communication. No more creeds to deny them. Do you know there is nothing impossible to those that love me? I am thee I am, the star of every life. Seek me and ye shall find me, know me only in the closet of your heart. Seek within and not without. I am always with ye when ye call in love and faith. The shadow of death shall not surround ye, but the sunshine of life shall be where I am, thou shall have contentment, hallowed in happiness. There will no longer be a craving for temporary happiness you find in your fashionable world, which is filled with the devil's craft, divorce and adultery, no respect for the vow they make to me. You give the devil my place in everything. You give my dear little lambs the bitter cup of remorse to drink from. You have brought suffering and remorse from generation. You give my lambs to the devil before they enter this world. They have already been given to him by the life you have led, so the curse of the devil is on you and you must pay a heavy debt. I bring you no misfortune, no sorrows. It is wholly the crop you have sowed, from the seed you have planted. From evil you receive evil, from good you receive good. Sin is a sure seed for suffering, so be careful how you sow. My path is narrow and straight and clear is the way, for I am at the end of that path to hold you up that you may not fall, but rise. By satan you fall, fall eternally until I come to call you from his tortures.

A NEW REVELATION

All things shall be made new in my coming. The whoremongers shall be no more. The harlots shall rot in their own sin, for there is no greater sin in my sight. No mock marriages for wealth and passion. It shall be a world of love, and husband and wife shall be sacred and dear to each other. Your vulgarity shall cease. Fall on your knees in sorrow and love for your curse to me. I have suffered at the sight of the devil mowing down by his laws. Some shall mourn and some shall rejoice when my trumpet is sounded. I shall not look for flesh and bone, but the spirit which is of me. Does not like attract like? I shall help you all I can. If you will be stronger with the devil, you must share his reward.

The earth shall be made new. I am the first and the last, Eternal Life. You must accept me, even in the last moment. You find me in the prison cells. I am seeking my lambs that satan tried to destroy. He will call his hot-headed. Line them up against me in battle for my lambs. His will be the church-hypocrite who wears my robe on Sunday and a thief in the weekday. The harlot robes in pure linen, silks and jewels parade before the world in my light. I am the whole. The devil tries to manifest two to deceive you. His secret robe of scarlet you are ashamed to declare before all, so you use me as a sham for your dark deeds. Ye that fake my robe divine with his, for it is the white robe of the lamb and satan's is of scarlet, bloodshed and wars, ye shall perish.

When the new world is revealed to you, you will dance in glory, for the divine gates of heaven will be opened and every one that is for me shall have a key to enter therein and the devil's key with him. Ye shall sing Glory, Halleluia in the highest, I am saved with my God. Then their light shall ever shine as the noonday in the holiest sunshine. Then thou shalt not cry for meat for the body, for my spirit, which dwelleth in you, will gather all thy life requires, without tiring. So shall my law be to the everlasting and eternal glory of man. Thy clouds shall no more gather. Thou shalt so understand my laws and love, ye shall not see the clouds any longer. But day by day thou shalt grow higher until thou shalt see no death, for thou shalt not suffer nor struggle in my love. I shall meet you in sorrow and give you the white and gold wings of love. You shall forget the old world as one delivered from the darkest prison. I shall rebuild the lost cities and towns into cities of celestial glory and peace. Thy children shall be as cherubs of love and beauty, and those that satan and his murderers robbed you of shall dwell in love and glory with me. They came to me in innocence and persecution, my angels were ready to receive them, so fear not that have trusted in me—you called on me in bloodshed, but you lived and spent your life in his reign, in creeds and forms and pride. You were in harmony with him and not with me. You passed from his reign to me in death and I received you that knew me. I am he that heals every wound.

Those he slew shall no longer thirst nor starve, for they are of the kingdom of heaven. Woe unto the king of wars, the prince of the devil, thou shalt fall never to rise, but to pass through the gates of hell and all your workers of the imperial laws. Thou shalt and must receive your reward. Thou shalt groan in agony, but shall not be heard, the devil you served cannot help you for he is bound in his cloven feet of fire. He knows you no more, neither do my chosen, for you must struggle and suffer until you find the way to purification. As you the devil find, so you must cast him behind, for he brought nothing but a fall and disappointment. The angels of heaven register and know every wrong you do, and don't think that every dark room of the devil has not been watched, for you must be rendered according to your works. They are of me and I of them. Ye that deny them, deny me. Oh, ye of prejudiced minds, that deny my children, lift the scales from your eyes. Did not the book of prophecy tell you there are divers gifts to those that love me? There is no limit to my works. Did you not read there was a voice from heaven for the birth of my Son? Did not the angel visit in divers of places? Then, children of the devil, why have ye denied my power? I am liable to come at any time to manifest my power. I have never changed. If I had, what would your world have been? You would have been destroyed years ago, but I saved you and you shall realize the power of my angels and their glorious lives.

Watch, for the day cometh, that which you denied shall come to redeem you with faces of celestial glory.

My angels have been coming to you to protect you from the serfs of the devil. Twice I cast him from heaven, thou art so much with him that my loved ones were denied, ignored even by the blind man on his pulpit, but not on mine.

Did not you glory and gloat over the success of the princes of the devil, thou blind sheep? See when thou gropest in the dark what ye can find, who will answer you?

A NEW REVELATION

You ministers of the devil who gloried and complimented him that slaughtered my children with your white sheets. Yea, they were as flames of fire to me. Do you know you must suffer your portion. You were not of me. I heard not your prayers of the devil in disguise and you must receive your portion. If you had sent your letters for peace instead of encouragement to him, that must fall in all his imperial glory, I would have heard you, and now those that are of the common must arise to slay and die to forever conquer the world for thee, those that are high must come low and the low must be high. I shall have no money kings to rule my world. They must fall if by the sword, for satan is of them and that is his work. It shall be overthrown, overthrown until his works are no more. The poor shall no more fall. The rich man, that plots in secret with the devil to distress my loved ones, shall perish.

When the earth trembles and quakes then you will know the gates to hell are opened for satan and all of his followers to enter. Every man that drew the sword unawares upon the innocent must go down to receive what they gave. He will reap the crop from the seed he has sown. Have ye not received strife in return for the seeds of the devil, from the beginning of his reign? Now I shall come to demand that which is mine. The world of evolution that you may be in harmony with all powers unknown. Most wonderful to behold to you that follow my precept. But lo, and behold, the victims of satan, their misery will be great, for he shall no more see light, he shall remain in the low state he came in, a cast-out spirit, to know no more, this is his last reign.

All, all is mine of love and peace, sublime and perfect in glory. Ye have perceived my coming for the past years through the new ideas formed and the thoughts of harmony and power of love which was the key I gave to so many of my loved ones. But the narrow-minded clung to the man-made creeds and forms and did not know the truth until the end is near. It is love that shall build the new world. He that stands on the highest mountain shall fall for me, when I come can you say no? I have given you the full benefit of all the devil's reign with all patience. You accused me of sending a curse on you in vengeance. I am not in that sphere. I only love and can only come when you call me in faith and love. I do not come through the clouds of satan's hell. It is poison gas to me. You will all go to your abiding places. Your deeds have made you hideous. You can build higher through the help of my angels, who will comfort and teach you the way.

Oh, ye that read my warnings take heed, think seriously, for it is holy truth known by all the heavenly host that I am coming in 1919 to claim all that is mine, many will see and know as never before. The heavens will be opened for you to know more. Then you will know I am near to take care of you at the great fall of Babylon. I shall seek the meek and humblest first, they can endure until then. Then I shall call the next, the first shall hold the records and so on, until I am through. I shall weed the chaff from the good, so that I can regenerate my new world to my liking and to your joy and reward for following in my pathways. My reward is slow but sure that thou may be weighed safely and balanced. Mine is heavenly right and the devil's might never balances. Ye are always seeking laws to protect you from being robbed. My ways are pure and my love requires no persecution, for love is all power. Everything must fall through the power of love. The only pathway through your life is love. Am I not the God-head of the most beautiful life you lead? Did I not create you with that beautiful happiness that perfects life? I created every living thing of its kind to know their own harmony and joy, which is equal to yours and more. Much will be learned in the new world that was not known in the old. The spirit revealeth all. Ye shall see wonders revealed to those of my light, which is the everlasting.

In that light nothing shall fail you but you shall have eternal growth and perfection. The sunbeams shall whisper the joys of life for in that I am. The soul of unquenching love hath no end, for now I am and forever will be. I shall bind every soul never to part. For the body of the devil is gone. The soul will find you and keep you ever in celestial joy and happiness supreme. Oh, how you will hunger for the love of my world if you only knew, but I have kept you from it until you were purified in spirit to receive it. Now at the fall of the devil the doors will be opened. You shall know each other by the soul and not by the body. I am not of the flesh, but of the spirit. Satan is of the flesh, the fall of his kingdom no more to arise.

Ye shall see silver lakes in their crystal waters surrounded by my cherubs of love and chaste, beautiful to behold. Their woodlands not of your earth, but of my worlds that I promise. You shall not grow old, but receive eternal youth as my others. Oh, ye mothers, prepare your hearts and minds for the coming generations for upon it rests the doom of your progeny. You must be made clean to receive the souls to come through the spirit. Your love shall be clean and not debased as in the reign of the devil. I will not have maimed and blind in my ruling, but perfection. You will be cleaned, ye harlots, even through fire, by the one you have nestled and succored for generations. From the greatest to the least you have hugged the devil in your arms and made your lives a stench, and a lake of fire has been yours, in comparison to the crystal waters I have brought in my kingdom. The animals of your world shall even change. There shall be no more growling and poison vipers. Thou will not till the soil as in the past, but it shall be changed by chemical conditions from the atmosphere that shall exist. There will be mighty changes, my children. Not one thing shall exist as of old.

I am coming, your Jesus Christ with his glorified angels, to call you to peace. I was once with you to help you, but you crucified me in your ignorance. I am coming that ye may see me in my glorified robes, celestial in glory, from my Father who sent me. I am the messenger of peace and love to all. So I am coming to restore all for my Father who sent me among you. You shall not be harmed that put your trust in the redeemer of all, for such it must be, for nothing from God is lost. It must be restored even through a quenching fire. You shall quake, scandal and doubt at this, my warning, but keep silent, lest ye fall in distress, for such it is that speak evil of my angels and my works, says the heavenly Father. I am Jesus of Nazareth, who was man, glorified in God to guide this kingdom until the Father should come to redeem all that are of me, the Christ of God, my heavenly Father. Seek not now to deny me, for my heavenly Father will deny you. This channel I have found through the ordinance of God, through which I can give you the message. Let it be no arguments or denials, no investigations, for the scales from your eyes will be lifted. This is only one of many miracles that shall be manifested before the coming. Ye have guessed for many generations, but God did not let you know. What your scientists craved for, they closed your eyes and minds totally to his works. I am now revealing the facts from my heavenly Father, and prove the truth of the book of the prophets, is true. Through which I met this child to do the work of the Father. She read with faith, she found the key to salvation, life and health, which the Father gave her for this power. She that trusted through the crystal waters, I made my visits to her in her suffering through false accusers of her faith in the angels and God. She shall live and they shall fade and wither as the grass, that deny her, did. So I ask you to beware, for she is in my power and not yours.

I shall come to bless you all and save you for my dear heavenly Father if you believe in me, for I am of Him. Oh, Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, as it is in heaven. So shall it be, my dear children, when you come to the crystal fountain of love and sip from the cup of Eternal Salvation. I am thy love and Master, in me shalt thou be saved and glorified in the heavenly host. I and the Father are one.

Oh, how shall the angels rejoice at your deliverance from the devil's reign and the suffering you have passed through. Thank your heavenly Father hourly for his promise and seek ye for Him to open the gates wide that you may pass through. Fear not, to those that love me, the kingdom of heaven is at hand, and ye shall be comforted to eternal bliss, glorified in God. I shall seek ye in every ambush, in every corner of the earth, to call you to account for your misdeeds, that you may be judged by me alone. The prison gates of the devil shall be thrown open never to close, for many there are clothed in the garments of the lamb, many of the devil. I shall sift the wheat from the chaff. No gate can be closed at my summons, but every lock will break at my demand. There will be no robes of mourning, but white robes of the saints, glorified in the Father. Peace, good will to man on earth. No more spite in creeds and wars for religion, that your heavenly Father shall judge you for. Seek me in harmony, love and charity, the divine and perfection. Peace must come. The rich man shall no more cause to govern my children through strife, but he shall vomit his riches, as a dog vomits on a poisoned bone. He shall know that the devil's love is not greater than mine. I love my own and shall have it, so be meek and humble. Seek ye one another as I have saved you from eternal darkness, for that is satan's lasting fall. Scorn not one another as you have in the past. Close your books of compound interest against the humble, for I shall set every sheet ablaze at my coming. You shall no longer gloat in the riches of the devil, but in the love and peace of my heavenly Father whose children you are. I am of thee and thou of me, and all you ask of me in my heavenly Father's name it shall be given ye.

You shall be glad at my coming for I shall bring you the sweetest of love and peace in Christ which is of my heavenly Father. Thou shall be sanctified in my heavenly Father who is soon to claim this all and no one can say nay, for the time is nigh.

MY DEAR CHILD: I am here to prepare you for your work this morning. Your guide, dear Jesus, cannot come to you now for a few mornings, owing to other charges he has. He has sent me, as I am the one who consecrated you to God, your Creator. Now, my child, you must strictly adhere to your duties to God and do not break his law in any way, for He is love. Let the friend that abused your love to herself more and she will recognize your goodness. She is one who must cast off much before she can be in harmony with God. You must not write now any more until Sunday morning, for your heavenly guide, Jesus, has gone to His Father for more to give you. I am truth from heaven.

FATHER REVELLE.

Ye will say, that this child may be wrong in mind, possessed of evil spirit, but it will go hard with you that deny my words. The time is here now when you must know the end of the devil's reign is close. Is there not an end to everything that is unjust? Has man, through his continued villany, destroyed his own life and all that follow him? Then, therefore, it is God, our heavenly Father, who has come to rescue the entire fall and destruction of your Babylon. Today your mouths are as suckling pigs to the mouths that shall sing and rejoice at my coming, so that your mouths will open in wisdom and power, such as have never been. For it shall be the voice of the heavenly Father speaking from within. Thou art of me and my works and words abide in thee. Thou shalt be no longer in ignorance how to obtain that which I have given thee. The door of everlasting life, wisdom, peace and love, that which shall fill thy hearts is the greatest of all power which will unfold all problems and perfect you that ye may never doubt, be deceived and languish. Thou shalt each and everyone be as one, so that ye may be with the Father, for I am in thee that ye may rejoice in perfect bliss. Ye shall no longer fear your brother and sister to greet with a fatherly smile of love when you meet. Now ye live cold, hateful, murderous. Ye say I hate, I never forgive. Oh, thou of the devil, possessed of his hot, fiery, fighting nature, how quickly ye shall fall to all you have caused and robbed. Ye shall not one hate the other, but love as I have always loved you from my heavenly Father.

I was heavenly born, so you shall be from a virgin mother in my kingdom, so that ye shall know each other through the power of the soul, then ye shall never be removed from each other in divorce and murder. Ye shall cleave to each other in my love as one soul. One love, one God, all perfect supreme. There will be many to deny this, but ye that do so, tries to deny that which is greater than all. Your heavenly Father and I, his chosen son in glory, to give you this holy message and promises of truth in his reign.

Love is your birthright through God. But ye have been cursed and fallen in your false marriages to hate one another and distress and cast apart my innocent lambs, that I might suffer at their suffering. You have turned against mother and father, brother and sister, against each other and lived in discontent of the devil and even your heavenly Father you scorn for him that shall go to his world of gloom. And every one that does not make their peace and love in truth to me and each other shall go likewise to him you love, but thou hast not seen his face and form of the cloven foot else ye would shudder at every act ye do to please him. He grasps at you with a mouth open in glittering teeth of gold that he may clinch you in his claws to live by his laws of hell, to rob the orphan, the fatherless and motherless, to rob each other of honor, to revel in lust. That ye are made dumb, blind and marred, that is your only reward. My days shall all be alike. There shall not be one day set apart for me, and the whole week spent with the devil, to throw your money in for prayers, I hear not. Save your money, give it to the fatherless, the widow, that will be much with you, as I am with them to hear the dear prayers from their hearts, sorrowed through the reign of the devil. I shall make every day as the Sabbath morn. You shall ring the chimes of sweet music from the heart of Christ, for such they will be. You shall all be glorified in God our heavenly Father. There ye shall sing with the choir of angels for they shall be near. Now you that are of the devil say they are sleeping, I tell thee they are awake in glory, visiting every part of your world at the command of the Lord of hosts.

The time has come that they are greater in power than ever in the history of the world, for if you were not protected by the angels of God, the devil's serfs are so crowded in your atmosphere, so thickly, you would know nothing but murder. They are liable to obsess you at any moment to spite, fight, lust and murder, which is the main cause of all the crime on this planet, which shall be perfected in God the Father.

The Divine Mind shall reign and mortal error shall be no more. He that receives this book, receives me. He that denies it denies me of my heavenly Father who has sent me as before. Ye have had many years to learn and know the truth, but your hearts can no longer be hardened lest ye suffer as I, your dear brother suffered, on the cross of Calvary, that you might know the power of God and his works.

I shall appear to you again in celestial glory on the morn my Father calls me to your resurrection from the devil and his angels, for the battle has been won, and he of the cloven foot and fiery eyes has gone asunder. He shall spit forth no more poisonous gases of brimstone and smoke on his battlefield to slay my lambs, for in the same places I will build homes of peace and love. Cities of celestial life. The consolation of communion with each other that have been slain and left in my name. I shall have compassion on all those that fought against princes of the devil that were in constant prayer with him. I am of love and he is of the sword.

AND A NEW WORLD

The first letters of the alphabet and reading were given to my chosen in the book of the prophets, which laid the foundation to the future and help to all you that believe in your heavenly Father, that they may live in glory dear mother's only help to me, so all ye mothers place your darling lambs to the mother's knee and open the book from God to your lambs daily and teach them to know their heavenly Father that they may live in glory and receive the glorious inspirational education of my chosen that has been blasphemed and been threatened with your gates of hell by the agents of the devil. That came to me in the bowing of the knee on the Sabbath and served the devil through the week. In her moments of sorrow I came to her and comforted her for her every day was in silence with me. I knew her as no other, and now my dear Lord has come, as she desired to give herself to His children, that she might feed and give them happiness in their lonely hours of suffering as she passed through.

All ye that believe in your heavenly Father in love and sanctification shall be made prophets and prophetesses as thy heavenly Father calls you. He has endowed every one of His loved ones with His powers, but you gave your mind to satan and the door was closed. So, therefore, fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters, take ye heed of my words of truth and ye shall receive according as thy spirit.

Rome, Rome, thy doors shall be shattered and fly to the four corners of the earth, and ye that have worshiped me in real love and sanctification shall be visited by the angels of holiness and be given your freedom from the prison gates. I called ye not there, but the false visions of man which I did not give. He reigned and came from bloodshed and was not of me. I shall give you merits of love and joy for ye loved me. The angels will unloosen the shackles that bind you, and you shall rejoice in open life that ye may not be reviled and give my children chance to sin for ye harbor dark thoughts of each other and it shall not be. In my chosen worlds there are no creeds, no forms, but heavenly love which perfects. He that raises the sword in my name shall fall into destruction, for there shall be no more wars. All nature shall be of me and their lands that flowed in blood and death shall be meadows of wealth. The sunshine of life instead of gloom. A land of milk and honey. To such as mourn and love I give comfort.

Rejoice not at thy wealth made from bloodshed like all the other works of satan I shall scatter to the four corners of the earth. It shall be as never was and then they shall have an honest living life in rebuilding and doing good in my name, and let the loved ones in heaven at thy brotherly love manifested to these dear ones on earth help you. I will build and rebuild my loved ones as never before for the beauties of God have never been revealed to man as shall be revealed through the spiritual mind and eye. Ye shall come forth in power unknown yet to man, which cannot be revealed only through the realms of God, the Creator of all that is perfect. I shall plan my lambs and you shall work in my name and ye shall enfold and unfold ten times ten. Ye will call me and I will give you. A new regeneration shall come and the old foundation shall crumble and crumble, and the waste places shall all be made new.

Your sermons of your Sabbaths shall change. Ye shall be of me and I of you. Ye shall all speak with tongues of love and peace. Your music shall be so grand and celestial it will raise your soul to your God. It shall be of stringed instruments and all manner of glorious instruments of the living God, and ye that sing shall sing with power from me that the hearts will rejoice in my love. Ye shall then be singing and playing with my loved ones in heaven, for they shall rejoice in you of me, for ye are all glorified children of me and ye shall not have more than another that dwell in me. I am the living vine and ye are the branches, and without me ye cannot do anything that is of me, for as yet I have never given you the keys to the great unknown. By this book ye shall know me, saith our dear Lord, the rock of Salvation.

This is the revelation that ye shall seek from to know me, and my coming, and the promises that must be fulfilled by me through our dear heavenly Father of whom we are all from, the beginning and end. The new world will open as the summer morn in all its glory to you that are of me. There can no harm befall you, no matter where you go, for love makes perfection in you and you can no longer harbor secret thought, which are just as evil as the act. Your thoughts are actions, so evil shall pass away. The vagabond, the drunkards, will not be of my time, but shall fade as the grass to return again in honor to his Father and his loved ones. Oh, sisters and brothers, cast out the secret lives to each other, for are you not ashamed, when the angels are ever watching inside the locked doors? They are everywhere and they each one know your false lives. They love you and mourn at your hellish secrets. The young paps that rove the streets to inveigle every soul they can trap, shall be cut down to rise no more until the devil delivers her from his evils. She shall no longer be seen, but cursed from him she served. The virgin of love and honor shall rule man in love and not in lust, for he shall be of love and all of him shall be of eternal happiness. The cup of peace, power and plenty shall be sipped from in every home. No longer will beggars flock your streets for bread, for they shall spin and weave. Their idle moments have been their curse, so they must pay for their lost time.

Every hour of your life that is wasted and every hair on your head is numbered as your deeds. There, your children halt in blindness and open your eyes, that you both see and hear these words from your Creator which never fails.

You may climb the mountain tops, but at His call you must obey. All is mine. The poor have huddled and humbled like hungry dogs for a bone to the kings, princes and rich, but ye that have humbled to the devil shall be exalted in me, for their ruling shall cease. I am the Dictator and King over my loved ones, the loving Father that freely gives. When the laborer does his work well he is worthy of his hire, so shall I doubly reward ye that work truthfully in my name. There is no other God but me. I create everything to my own, for I have all that is unlimited. There is no end to the progress to them that ask and live in my love. Ye will travel when ye may in the woodlands, in the meadows, in the heavens ye gaze. Is there anything that is not perfect that is created? I gave it all without money. Ye must have money from your brothers, sisters, as if there was nothing higher. When ye give one another in my love and reign it will bring you tenfold more reward and perfect happiness. Now it is nothing but gloat over and worship your dollars. Have I not a right to appoint a time to reclaim my own? Do you know the more you suffer from the wounds and disappointments from satan, the sooner you must call to me to heal you? Has he ever healed you? No, he has brought curses to you from the beginning. You have been serving God and mammon since the beginning. A rise and a fall to test you. So now as ye have been well tested by mammon, ye shall no longer serve two masters. Pride and selfishness is of him, love and humility, the ever progressing, is God and Salvation. The time is near when you must answer to my call. You shall have the title of the Spirit which will ever rise and live in glory.

AND A NEW WORLD

Your oceans shall no longer be traveled in fear, but by love and harmony to every one, for I shall make them as silver lakes and gold, not as ye have them now. Ye shall be guided by my guides. Ye shall go where you have never been, for I will show you new countries of fabulous wealth, abiding in fruits and flowers ye have never seen, and the people are of me and knowledge, that will bid you welcome, that you may be no more strangers on my earth. Are you not all of my creating, I the Father? Then why stand ye hence and stare, not to recognize each other. At my rule ye shall know each other without fear, for I abound in love and ye are mine, and ye shall have all that is of the heavenly Father. I shall share with you the proceeds from my heavenly worlds that ye may see and know my greatness and love to my lambs, and it shall never cease, for I am forever.

There shall be but one you call Father. There is but one holy Father in heaven. Ye come to me in your toils and tribulations, Satan's snares have entangled you in, and I will hear you when you labor to obey me and renounce him. He that comes confessing to me for help and returns to his works of the devil in satan's liar and I know him not. Pray not by words, but seek me in the silence in humility and sanctification, not for selfishness but love for each other and I will lighten your burdens.

By no man can ye be forgiven but by me. Raise not your hand in violence from the devil, lie not, deceive and cheat not. Act not the Sunday saint and the weekday thief. Know ye not I am an all watching eye with my angels? Pay not your money into churches and ministers to cover your black mantled hearts. Know ye not there is but one church? And that is the temple of love my Father built from the beginning and satan humbled it and gave it man made creeds. I did not leave a creed from my Father, but love ye one another as I love you and give up my life that ye might believe on Him. Every man that has lived by my laws shall rule and he that has disobeyed must fall. Oh, ye of the world, pick the scales from thine eyes, see and know. Every man pay his debt, as you caused others to suffer, you must suffer tenfold.

No diadem crowns will be worn on earth, for they are only in heaven. The diadems of purity, truth and love must only be worn, robes of celestial beauty which are of the saints. The rich man's love that feed the hungry and live by my laws are dear to me. I gave him that he may give, but woe unto him that multiplies for greed under the law of satan. The fire of your conscience will burn you in unquenchable flames until you stagger, fall and rise no more in the works of the devil.

You must know me and love me truly within and I will deal bountifully not in one thing but in all shall I follow from one generation to the other. Ye shall be doves of peace unto my liking. Seek me loved ones for I am everywhere. Call me and I will answer my lambs. This is the love and law of my Father who sent me to convey His message. Ye shall see me again and again who hath spiritual eyes from the soul; the living spirit of which I am.

There is nothing impossible with your heavenly Father, no, not one thing. He selects His own. He knows every pain and sorrow. In the future you will know why ye shall not deny his message, but listen and heed, for it means much. I am all power, life, the rock upon which every right is built and so must be perfected in God, even though it be a million years. I claim all, even the blind in the devil, when their victim has suffered out his wrong.

No man can make peace but through me. I alone know the offender, and he and every one, that bred the devil's war must meet as he meted. Your crop must be heavy for you sowed heavy with the worst of the devil's brutality. I am the Holy Father, there is none on earth or in heaven that is equal with me. Call none Father but me. I positively deny you this, for it is idolatry. Every creed and idolatry shall and must go with the devil's falling. Bow thy heart to me, in love to me that knows you and not the knee. I see and know your heart, there is no secret before me. The brother and the world sees the knee. Live in me is all I ask. I heed not a creed nor form, for it breeds dissension among you, and love binds you together in prosperity. My children, whom I love, I beg of you to love me from within, that I may reward you in truth and love that I am. Money love has ruled since the beginning, and destruction has been the end. Now God's love will bring you all together in bliss and success. It shall be the springtime of life. I will give you plentiful in my name, you shall receive only in my name.

You that are rich in the world's goods shall deal freely to the deserving poor. You shall comfort them in mind and body. Therefore, you are doing my works in greatness, for they are of me, and when you persecute them you gain no love from me for they are my own. In so doing I will increase tenfold more in heaven and earth.

AND A NEW WORLD

The lands and the oceans deep are mine and every nation shall have her rights to my waters in peace. But he that is of the devil must be withheld until the time comes when there is perfect peace, love, humility in every heart that offended the Father in heaven by praying to the devil to conquer in bloodshed. Murdering broadcast without warning. Why shall I not withhold? Thou art liable to build deceit and deception. Satan shall not rest breeding lies to return again, for I shall cast him out to stay. But he will battle to break his chains, and it is the last of contentions. All must be ever peace. You must unite all my nations in peace and love. Deal honestly in brotherly and sisterly love, not as queen and servant, kings and servants, all false pride must go. You of the spirit are equal and of me and shall share alike. The greatest of all that binds every family tie is love, which ye have never had, but I shall clean up every field of its wars, its bones, flesh and disease and purify the air with love that you will forget the past for the happiness of the new life. The heavy burdens that you have carried for generations shall be as air. My lambs thou shalt weep no more, for I am with you in my love. My battle is over and the lion is chained. His jaws are thirsting for more blood of my lambs.

A NEW REVELATION

You shall read my book and know the truth, for not a rock shall remain in place or a stone unturned, but every word I have spoken shall come to pass. And ye know every one of you that my angel ones do not lie in the grave of darkness and stench until I come, for I am always here, so are my angels at my call. Then I will reveal all to you that are ignorant of the truth.

The devil's angels are filling the air, murdering, lying, stealing, greater than ever before. You are lying and stealing without any conscience to please him, not knowing that I am going to grasp from you every unjust dollar. This is my law. No man shall be greater than the other for money. They that are of divine love, flowing in an abundance of my gifts of beauty and knowledge from me shall rule and build the gifts that money cannot buy. Do you not know the soul is of me, and you that ask of the soul ask of me an abundance. Thou art the Kingdom that is all. Does not the Kingdom of heaven dwell within when you live by my laws? Then shall no man deny you anything, for I am the giver and not he. You shall be the builder of all that shall ever be, for you work in my name. Every nation shall pay her debt. The people shall be for the people and not for the kings, for they shall and must pass out at my demand. Ye shall not one be greater than the other, for my world must be harmony. Ye only rise through me, and each and every one will seek to be clean in heart and soul. Then will nature be so perfect ye cannot be otherwise than beautiful and refined in my sight. So I ask thee to begin to clean thy houses of filth. Your great houses of lust will crumble never to rise. Your harlots shall rot and be trodden by the devil your King, for he must go of the flesh and you are of him.

There can be no communion from the heavenly ones until you are purified in spirit. When my work is completed, the gates of paradise shall be opened to you all to know each other as I have promised. Oh, ye of little faith wrapped up in your own knowledge and conceit. You declare against thy heavenly Father, who shall make you humble to the earth, deny not my power. No, not one, for he that does, shall become the least. Fear not me, but love me in truth, is all I ask of my lambs. You are bound in your selfishness from the real beauties that have been hidden from you, that you should have had, if the proud monster had not ruled you, one to crush the other beneath him. Your hearts are blood-thirsty and cold. You could not deceive me, ye of the great men and yet the least of all, for ye boasted of wealth and took advantage of what I gave you, to destroy by greed and lust. Your maidens ceased to blush for the sake of your accumulations from theft. Ye that have been great in the devil's reign shall be the least in mine. For lest ye humble with the meek and those that you have hurt, how can I have a liking unto you? You have cursed my all in secret and then loved me to the world. Your times have all expired. Is not there an end to everything that is destructible? Built by the hand and not of the spirit. I say yes, I am the cornerstone of everything on earth, all shall be dedicated to me. Thou shalt call on me for everything ye do, so that the devil will see his reign has expired with him and his staff.

I shall give you beautiful peace and love. Wherever ye go you will find me. Ye will never be lonely. I will send my angels to comfort you and I will give to each and every one the power to once more speak and hear the loving words from each other. You shall travel and see as you have not before. The vehicle will be the mind and the power of all. Goodness is all from me and will bring all good. My hand is always open to receive you. Matters not how low you have fallen with satan. I will receive you and perfect you in love of the Father, for we are all brothers and sisters in God's love.

The time is near when you shall not fear each other nor hate or fight among you, for that is the full rejoicing of the devil and his angels. Your storms and destruction are from the forces of the winged devils that heavily upset the air. They fight away all that is good, for they know nothing but war and fighting. It is their greatest happiness to do so, as it is mine to progress and love. You must soon see and realize the truth of what you as yet know nothing of.

I shall build and rebuild over night in my reign such beauties that mortal eyes have never seen. Love is the redeeming power. I will appoint you ministers of God-love, and not the minister of great buildings, that causes one another to supplant in beauty. But try each one to surpass to build thy love and consecrating your life to your Creator that ye may receive a quick response to your prayers, which are living, and not from the lips to live in harmony with the Father is the greatest prayer. Actions are greater than words. Actions build and words deceive until you have received Him that is perfect love. Innocence is the greatest act you can give, for it is of the heart. Thy heart cannot hold spite, so that is why I have reached this channel. It had its perfecting, drenching and cleansing until there was no obstruction. It is hard for you, I know, my children, to understand my laws, and neither can the deliverer of my words of warning see why she should be visited by me. But by and by you will all have your appointments from God. You shall all be true prophets from the heavenly Father. You shall all have heavenly appointments just as the angels in heaven. Each one have their daily duties just as you have, but not like yours, but of God's gifts. They labor for the suffering souls and their reward is great. Their homes are glorious and beautiful beyond expression, as I have promised you. The devil's is of gloom and mourning. My words are as blossoms in the spring. The seasons of love shall bring abundance, for as it is in your book of prophets. If you are of me and I of you, and I am love, you must express love, for there is nothing higher for ye to give me for my abundance of blessings. No man is greater than he that loves me, for love makes all perfect, as I have preached before. But you reaped the proceeds from the devil and his serfs. Your world has been as like the reception room to his hell, for that is so dark, and on every side of the four walls are visions of fire and fierce are the faces and forms of his victims. Therefore, ye take warning from my words, what he has in store for you that serve him. Ye have not seen a horrible vision equal to what he shall give you when he retires from his power, which is slowly falling until I come to fulfill my Father's laws. I am He that always was, and every moon and every star shall change at the command of the Holy Father. Therefore will I come like the twinkle of an eye and the earth will turn and return new to those that believe in me. And to those that do not may it be well when satan vomits up his victims in their agony at his eternal death.

Your cabarets of lust and drink shall go as in the fall of Babylon. You have racked up everything that is the lowest. You daily commit foul deeds in greater intelligence than when you were not so enlightened as today. So, therefore, you are no better now than in thousands of years. Therefore you are more accountable for your deed. Ye know the more ye know, the more are ye accountable for! I have more sympathy for the wild man in Africa than for you, that have every advantage to know me and boast of your civilization. You open your white slave dens which are ten times more devilish than the poor man in the forest. Now who shall pay the greater debt? You will suffer tenfold more, and he shall become exalted when he knows me, for he will come to me in humility and love and truth. And the angels will rejoice with me at his coming. Who is greater with me than the humble contrite soul that shall ever be exalted in glory and have the full benefits of my promises. There is glory and sunshine in the heart when the world is full of divine love. No more tears shall be shed, my dear one. Ah, the parting of dear ones for satan's devils was sad. Their sorrows were great. Was this not enough for you all to see the reign of the devils who aggrandized to claim my children's lands that I gave them? They plundered and murdered in the past in the power of the devil, but peace and civilization was reigning when he stood aside and called the beast to come and help him to complete his work before his fall. Pride and selfishness has been the foundation of all this sorrow. So now take my last warning. I am soon to chain the dragon and his subjects, and the beast on his throne of pompous glory must fall as the hungry dog. There shall be no reign of royalty of the devil. Your kingdoms shall become ashes for the devil. I hear no prayers from the proud heart. They vibrate to the devil. I hear only from the humble in spirit. Now ye know that ye have prayed amiss. I say to you again, crush every creed and let every church become one in love and harmony. March your streets, Catholics and Protestants that have hated each other for generations on account of your forms, which I lend a deaf ear to, for you can no longer disobey me. Your creeds have covered too much secrecy and deceit, where love cannot enter. You ministers of love and priests of love, throw down your gorgeous banners in my honor and carry them through the heart of love. I love not show nor form. Unite in love and peace before I come with ironclad power to crush your falseness to me. It is not anointing of the body nor giving religious titles in return for money that I recognize you. You have robbed the poor to gain. You have been a secret thief to gain the devil's goal. You have revelled with your concubines. You are carried to your graves in grandeur. But what does that profit you with me?

I know you only through humility and love which you must live if you want to enter the mansions built by me. The rich and neglectful have given me so little to build on until the last, so therefore it takes a long time for them to receive my promised homes of celestial glory. Better ten times is the beggar from the streets to me in his misfortune, many times the fault of the high horse that caused it. You rich fool of arrogance who looks up to me in your pomposity and pride in our great churches and well paid ministers to help you on the Sabbath, I cannot endure it very much longer. Your hypocrisy must fall. You shall no longer spend my days in lying through the week and come one day in the week to me. You must stay with him you worship until you come to me in full, and in truth and love. So now ye know how near ye are to me. Come to me as little children, who are the lambs of my fold, when you shall bathe in the crystal waters and know only perfect bliss. Strangers to us, yet many are marching along, and the end of the road is divine happiness, all that is perfect, for I am the way and my light shall guide you, so ye shall never fear who love me. I shall make you angels to inhabit glorious temples, that mortal minds cannot build, only those of divine mind. Such will I fill your world with when you all unite in universal brotherhood and sisterhood, and crush your prejudiced thoughts of my laws. I am the God of love. Now, then, what have ye been but worshiping God of forms and calloused hearts. Don't you see how many years of blindness you lived in? Do I not remember the inquisitions when you slaughtered in the most barbarous manner to change the minds of many that loved me in heart without such idolatry? You have been groping in the dark, you blind dogs, in your traveling to bring to every one one law. Nay, I say but one law that is love to your Father which comes through kindness and gentleness, to reach out to each other a thought of love and greeting smile when you meet, which must be of the heart.

Deceit is the crown of the devil set in its diadems. It is the deadliest poison to everyone that lives it. There is nothing on earth that is imperfect that cannot be made perfect through the power of God. Therefore, I ask you to seek Him that is all perfect, that ye may be made so. There is not a cripple or a blind one in my world, but those of satan are many. You pass out of this life to enter one more crucial even than this, according to your works do I receive you, so keep account of thy day's doings, for from that you become and wonder and struggle for months and years for peace. I take you not from any anointing of your body, but the anointing of your soul while here. So, therefore, I say cease, and know me, not through fear but love from the inner self. Wash clean within in preference. Your garments may be tattered and torn, but when thou art clean in heart I shall renew and you shall then be doubly rewarded.

I am going to open every cell and break every prison gate and every man and woman shall be released and receive according to their love to me, for there are many loose today that have committed double the crimes against me than those that are imprisoned, and ye shall then pay your debts as the others.

You shall each and every one receive alike. I make no distinction. Your souls are equal. You that don't profit by my last testament must, therefore, suffer with satan in his fall. All you of haughty spirit shall groan at your fall, when you see my exalted with me, for I know every man according to his humility before me.

Do you know the world's friend cannot be of me until they are cleanly washed; for as I have before said I am whole in my Father and there shall nothing be divided in his perfect reign. You of the world of riches have traveled the world to seek the fashion of the devil and his works, and what did you gain? Only discontent and unhappiness, seeking and constantly stealing in the devil's fascinations.

When thou shalt be joined by holy wedlock through the power of divine love, thou canst no more depart, but remain in holy love, for our heavenly Father will guard your household and the devil will no longer enter therein to build his fire to destroy you. He cannot destroy my works. The angels shall rejoice at your marriage feast, for it is of my law and my new birth of man which shall no longer be of the flesh, but of the spirit that worketh all things in my light of salvation and triumph. They that are of the spirit cannot lie and cheat, cannot play the false prophet, for the Christ shall enter every home to remain and everything will be done to our heavenly Father's liking. You shall lift the humble beggars born to his own in doing God's works for each other. You shall receive tenfold merits. Thou shalt not work for your own pleasures, but for the happiness of your brother likewise. Then ye shall see the real true happiness you have lost under satan's perishing power. I shall save the world according to the number of souls that return to my fold, for my world must be renewed, and not one smack from satan shall exist in my perfect reign, when you must all be in harmony with your heavenly Father. I shall hold off only as I see the return of souls. Then if you are slothful, I shall sweep, sweep until there is not a vestige left, for he shall and must go. Those of him and mine are mine. Every creature to his own. Even the ocean will give up its dead. Everything shall be overthrown, and every animal shall be to me as you. They shall be saved. I am the all known, and know my works in rebuilding. When my foundation is weak I must build from the bottom up lest it fall again and there shall never be another fall, for my reign shall be forever, and my works perfect to you. So be renewed in me always. You shall be perfect in your lives, not one can harm the other. The fiery war of anger and bloodshed shall fall never to rise. No creed shall be greater than the other. You that try to dominate in your religion I will crush to nothing, that you may be no more. I am the one to dominate. Thou hast no love in domination. You are full of the devil's jealousy. You shall have no more desertions from me, for I will place the flaming sword before you and you shall be cut asunder just as the devil's serfs curse by my name daily and hourly. Why do you not call on the devil to curse you. In your blindness do you not know he is cursing you every moment in the day and making you miserable, that ye may have no peace, no health. Then your last thought is your creator that you have defamed. Oh, you lassies of the smart set who are the ringleaders of the world's downfall, every class patronize

you in your pride and selfishness and lust. You are only flagstones to my dear true children that you would hiss with scorn. Ye shall look in horror and sorrow when my lambs are selected from the sheep, for they are clean within. I shall save all my building, not a stone shall be touched that is built in my love, but every building where pride and secrecy exists it shall fall never to rise. Then I shall build towers of golden glory in their place. My earth shall be built to my liking, that ye may be in such a pure state of love, ye can communicate at my will, as now it is dangerous, for the devil's angels are bold and determined in their evil. This is the last days of his reign. Ye are money mad, lust mad, drunken mad. Do you not realize this is nearing your last day? When one murders, do you not prepare a day for his death? So do I prepare a day and hour for the destruction of the devil. He is then destroyed and his works go with him. Once there were a few saved, but now let it be many, that my world may be renewed without darkness and trembling of the earth, which will burn all that is not of mine. Thou canst not climb to the hill-top nor treetops for it will be inside up and everything shall spring up as the tree blossoms. My works will be as magic as my new building. You shall call and I shall answer at every bidding. Oh, ye that love me how I shall glorify thy name on my record and redeem thee, that ye shall be saved from the wrecks of satan's reign. I am he that never sleeps, neither do my heavenly recording angels. I am in constant helping to those that call on me from the heart. I hear and know from every part. The spirit worketh through everything, so shall it be at my second coming from my heavenly Father. Then those shall ever be the lambs of God. The wooly sheep shall take the wool they have garnered. Their bank cannot buy that which I have given thee. Money cannot buy God's gifts, and works that come through love. Ye shall say oh then and now—that are saved. The land of liberty have I choosen to overthrow the thrones of hell. So shall every false king that rules by his money power. Him will I destroy to my own liking, for if he is not of his heavenly Father who gives freely and crushes the poor under his wheels of tyranny, he must crumble at my call; without me ye could not live and yet you curse by my name, your heavenly Father. Wealth shall not rule my world, for it comes of the devil's graft. Love shall rule supreme. Now ye know the truth from your dear heavenly Father. Disobey and I will take. Obey and

I will yield abundantly. Oh, ye that are humble and in humility to me grieve not, for ye shall be rewarded when I render my account from my heavenly Father to the rich speculator and every man that follows in his path. So shall his kingdom fall and you shall rise. Ye that are chaff shall be wheat. It is what God demands and not man, man's time has gone. When he lives in the Holy Spirit I will make him according to my liking. He shall be commander of his flocks. Have I not made the least nation of common people the greatest of all nations?

Now ye shall come to me in heart and I will make the least that was, the greatest ruler over all. You shall build the waste cities of destruction in my name. Everything you do must be by the love of the heavenly Father, that it may not be overthrown. For ye shall not build to worship the devil. I will tear down everything that is not of me, every man must level his wealth with his honesty. Deal to each one according as I have dealt with you. You shall have no other laws. Your great corporations must fall into the power of the devil, which means no more. I shall crumble until every humble soul has put you as the grass under their feet. Fear my laws for my words shall be as fire to rascal and liar. He shall not live in my world. Everyone shall be as a fiery viper. I shall give the ocean free and plentiful. You shall reap from it as never before, for your riches shall be of me. Every man shall have an equal right by honesty and humility. By that law ye shall increase tenfold.

Cut out every liar, every thief, deal not with him that he may fall. Cut down every harlot as you would a wild beast, that she will fall never to rise again, for she is a deadly poison to the world. Crush your jealousy that it may not burn you. Destroy your creeds and meet ye one another by my creed of love. Let every faith be as one to me, which is my law. The highest of all, love, for your God is love. This is the only key that will open the gates of heaven. Drop not your heads, nor look down ye sacreds, but look up in the face of your fellowmen, be ye a priest or hated minister. Minister each to the other love, as now you are isolated strangers, ye visit only them that follow your creeds. Shame ye blind men and women. I go everywhere, so do my angels, ministering love and peace. In obeying my laws perfectly I shall save you without sorrow. But ye must obey by fire, if not by love of me. The longer you hold to the devil's laws, the greater will be your troubles; for now is the beginning of his kingdom to be overthrown, where darkness now prevails. I will make it a perpetual sunshine to all if they will not pass through the valley of death but to everlasting happiness.

You are all descendants of the children of Israel in the wilderness. You shall all pass through the Red Sea without harm. The waters will subside, and ye shall all worship me in spirit. Ye shall no longer worship the golden calf, but the power of the Christ shall crush every vestige of the golden calf, so that not a bone shall be left to recognize, that he has been. Ye are now in the bloodshed of the devil that ye have worshiped. Do you see that ye are falling? You are all paying your debts in sorrow to the golden calf. You hunger and thirst for his spoils as you do for a drink to keep life in you, so shall your hearts ache. Your soul thirsts to receive a drink from the crystal waters from the spring of life. God, Truth, Spirit, all in all. I give and I take. The devil damns you when you call on him in my name. Oh, ye of midnight darkness, as ye sow so shall ye reap by your blasphemy of the Holy Spirit. There will be no parting of the Red Sea for you, but ye shall sink in darkness. No light to guide, so ye shall fall. Take heed before my final visit. You will smile from the devil and hiss in snares, but woe unto him, that heeds me not, it will be as a bolt of lightning at the last day.

The glittering of gold is the smile of the devil. Your dancing in regal glory of the devil is the hour in which I come to call you all according to your works. What have you done in your 20,700 years in building and perfecting your lives? The more I gave you, the more you served the gray cloven foot, the devil, who you must dwell with and see his most frightful form. It is all of your own building. I gave ye conscience to guide you to perfection, that you might inherit the perfect life of celestial glory, where sorrow, sickness and death never enter, but ye took to the wild liver and rode to the devil's den. Ye gambled, ye drunken beast, in your lust. The torchlight of the devil was your glorious light in your beds of lust, filth and stench. Ye rotted, not only your own bodies and destroyed not only your own souls, but from generation to generation. You have bred the lust from your own filthy bodies to your children. You cursed your lambs before birth and now in your last days you must repay the breeder of your evil.

Every evil has originated through the love of gold and lust. You have worshiped thrones and kings that have opened the gates of hell for you and held them open, until my coming, that I may clank them, that they can never open again. All the devil can give you and take from you, he has given you here, for he cannot release you from your groans and sorrow, when ye are with him, as ye have used my world and time, so shall ye dwell likewise until you come as the dust of the earth, the grass under your feet, purified by fire of your conscience before I shall answer your call.

Now ye are free choosers of all I have truthfully and most sacredly warned you of. For, as you recognize it as a sacred and everlasting call, I shall visit the earth under my law with love only and prosperity. The foxes shall howl and scatter at my coming. Yea, I have caught ye in thy cunning. You can no longer plunge upon my lambs, but they shall stand firm in my power and prance before you without fear, for they are the owner of the forest and all therein. Ye shall go hungering and suffer as ye have caused them. At each turn of the wheel you get your own, but not back to this world, for it shall be of me, where no sorrow and sin can exist. Ye shall be flourishing under your palm trees in your wealth when I come, so keep ye prepared, more so than ye have in your bloodshed, for I am sure, and nothing ye can do can prevent my works. There is but one law, one power, one harmony and that is divine love, which is I, God; and when the churches truly have it, then will they no longer hate each other in your slander and jealousy. Give freely to each other in one body of love. You only reach me in love. You only receive from me in love. You don't have to drink from the cup and eat of broken bread, if your hearts are with me. That is greater than all, and love ye one another is all I know you by. Then you will not be a thief, a liar or a murderer in secret. No one faith need clamour to rule my world. I am all in all. So don't meet in secret and ask the prayers of devils to rule, for I make you little before the world, ye shall fall. I must sweep that which is not of me, for my Father and I are one, so are ye with me. I am the Christ which is all from God. Fill your hearts in the spirit and you and I are one. Seek me in the silence, in the innermost part of your closet. There will I answer you openly and the world shall know you. Chant to me in glory from the heart to be in harmony with the heavenly Father, which reveals all in time that is all of him, for there is no other power and no end.

Your pulpits hold aloof from each other through selfishness as if I energized your breeding animosity in the throes of the devil. Come forward, fill your pulpits with all congregations and be prepared, for I shall receive you ten fold more. You shall not blaspheme the faith of each other. Do ye not know that is of the devil? Will ye not take heed until ye are cast down? Every one is saved through honesty, truth, spirit and that is divine, if you love in love ye cannot hurt, but in your blind creeds you have bred bloodshed, and waiting to do it again. Nay, ye will not, I will burst every wall, tear down every money vault you accumulate through me, which I am not. Every vault that holds your so-called religious money I will bury under ruins, so deep it cannot be found. Worship me in the robes of Jesus Christ, not in your gilded mourning robes. I ask for the heart, mantled in the white robe of purity. Have ye one mind and that is simplicity and love which is from the heavenly Father. Many miracles are now being done by my lambs, and have been. The Saints are as always. The angels as always, only greater, for they are all preparing for my renewal, redeeming my children that satan has governed for thousands of years. They will come at my call to take each one their part in the restoration. I shall not come as a thief in the night, but I shall give you time to prepare you for the new life which is to come. I am coming gently, pleadingly to you in love, not as satan, tearing and destroying, giving you sorrow upon sorrow. You will all be one spirit. Cease to climb the earthly ladder of destruction that you are suffering from. It is fast falling and every one climbing it shall fall one after the other. But the ladder leading to the gates of heaven that the angels are holding for you to climb shall never fall. On and on ye shall climb to eternal love and bliss. You shall never be lonely and sad, but perpetual happiness shall be yours.

Your steps to satan are downward, and to the heavenly Father advancing upward to the unlimited. I shall call my humble and persecuted first, for they have born well through the devil's laws, the secret laws of theft. You shall stand in the rear. They shall be given first and he that has been greatest shall be least among you. He that liveth in the spirit, which is all, shall rule in my name to perfect all that is to be from my children. I created everything in spirit, even the plant. The seed in the ground worketh on to the plant, then the blossom, then the fruit. I created everything to work. Rich and poor, ye shall work in my name to evolution. Through and through until you are filled to the perfection. You falsely worship me in your arrogance and pride, ye kings and queens of the devil. Down, down shall you go, each and every one until ye shall humiliate in simplicity to the heavenly Father. You can no longer make the humble and free your slaves and make them honor the works of satan to continually hurt what you call the common people. Do you know your household is filled with the devil's works? I am always found in the home of the humble and in the home of love. Do you not see the sword of satan is slaying you all in your pride? You shall be as a beggar in the streets in time. You shall be put in prison, in chains for your brutality. Have ye not sowed sorrow among my children that ye shall reap ten fold? Your pleas were cunning that ye might rule my world and crush my loved ones. You shall now fall to the common people that were least and now greatest of all nations, for they shall build the waste places, till your lands. Give your life in my name. You shall receive from the least the land of freedom and liberty. You shall receive this message and truth, that it may warn you and prepare you for my work. I shall watch you day by day and hour, to see how you profit by my warning, and according, I am to fulfill. Labor in my cause to close your dens of vice and white-slave traffic of the devil, and I will be with you. Mothers who love your children put on my armour, crush the devil as you go down with the bluecoats, in their secret vice. Force open the windows and doors of the devil, for they in their rum hovels cover vice. All this must go before my coming, for you shall receive my judgment. The earth must be filtered of the devil's works. He has been your false god. Now I shall claim and reclaim until yours shall be a haven of rest and peace. Every man shall be known by his works. You may smile, but woe unto that smile; ye will mourn and plead, but where will you find me? With those who love me in truth and not from fear. Before the downfall of man he becomes arrogant, defying truth, a rise and a fall to every one of the devil, so your life is one of disappointment and sorrow. Many times my angels pick you up in your sorrow and bring you before me for consideration. If ye are truly humble I receive you, and if not, you must labor on until you see the light. You shall be baptised in heart and not of water. You shall be clean and clear from the devil's works, and then you shall see through the depths of the crystal water all that is and ever shall be.

Thou shalt not delay and sneer at my words any longer. Do you know there is an end to all you build of the earth not in my name? You have built from the devil in speculating, lying, stealing and now you shall deliver it at my call. It must go and you shall have no power. He that works and builds honestly, his works shine before me. He that steals, lies and swears by my name passes by in clouds fast and thick to be given their judgment. This is all to be paid back to the devil for what he has given. I call and visit through love. Is not the devil my prisoner, can ye not comprehend in all these years that every man must pay according to what and how he receives? You go in the grave as a beggar, nothing that you have labored for to save, for the evil you have brought in the world can't help you. Knowing me in glory and wisdom and go out likewise to receive my inheritance. Divine wisdom is life all in all. In time ye shall know what you suspect, but not clear what you imagine. You shall have the wisdom of God within, that ye may know all. There shall be no more harkening of lies, but of truth, the ever-living God and salvation within. You shall be children of spirit. You shall no more inherit the lust of the flesh—the devil; but refinement, chastity thou shalt have that will give ye faces of angels. Faces of the spirit and not of passion. You that drink from my cup, your faces shall be changed. Your hearts kind and gentle. You will not come by me as you have been doing, for I will lay the hand of iron so heavy upon you that you will know me, and satan will be the oppressor, the weight you shall have to bear. I have given you eyes to see, ears to hear, mind to know. Am I to blame? I never cursed and brought judgment. Ye created it by your own work from the devil. Some time do you not know that sorrow is the friend that helps you in evolution. The devil's end is my opportunity. You call me and I hear you. Who has the greatest debt to pay, the beggar who has had such vile crude environments or the rich man with his opportunities? The child in the lowest hovels has been the rich man's child, the child of kings. You must work out your salvation until you find me in truth and spirit. As you live, so must be the weight of your burden. Open your hearts and your minds to my warning, for in the past ye have kicked it aside as rubbish, but now the time has expired in which the whole earth, every soul shall receive me. You that know me shall beam with happiness, for I will give you such joy as you have never experienced, that you may rebuild my world. You that did not heed me shall groan in disappointment. Your watch hours shall be lighted, but they shall go out and you shall grope in darkness until I deliver every one to his own light, greater than ever your earth beheld. Then you will all know your own. You shall never more be parted from the children of God. But brother from brother, brother from sister, sister from sister, children from parents. You shall not know each other in the last days if you do not abide by the promises of the heavenly Father. In the year of our Lord 1918 the spirit of liberty and freedom will cover the earth, the lamb has conquered the lion and his jaws will be open no longer to howl in his beastly aggrandizement for possessions of the whole world, which the devil told him he could have, if he would go to war, smother and slay as he went in the most brutal war in the history of the world. No such armament ever existed. He has made it as ruthless as possible, for he knew the date of his rule was coming to an end. Let every heart rejoice in love to your heavenly Father, that he may receive you and bless you at the close of this brutal war, for it is only the beginning of the changes which are to come.

Children, love and obey your parents. Keep from lust and drink that our heavenly Father will call you with him. He has now chosen that He may save you from going in the atmosphere of the devil that you have been living. I am He that is truth from the living God. I have come that you may be saved from the sorrowful end that must come. Your hearts will be changed. Follow me and my word and works and our heavenly Father will have compassion on you. If I find much I take much in my love and you shall be made to rejoice. If not I will take my number and the rest will perish with satan. You will then know and see what you have never been able to truthfully discern, greater than mind has ever conceived. Children, love ye one another. It means, can you expect a crop of oranges from a fig tree? As you give, so you must expect to receive. The eagle cannot produce a lamb. The eagle is a vulture and the lamb is for your meat, meat to strengthen you in soul and body. You that are humble shall gain all, so be a lamb in your life that I may make you strong in eternal happiness. I fear not, so shall ye fear not that is of God, for the heavenly host surround you at His calling. Do you know that when you are good, you are never alone? The angel of peace and love is with you. Though the path may be rugged to travel for a while, be patient, for God is battling that you may be delivered and your eyes opened to the truth. The way is long and narrow, but treasures are at the end of it, now and then in the power of plenty and love. Then you shall rejoice at my coming to save you from the devil's works. The courts of wealth shall vanish like a thunderbolt. The rise and the fall shall be great. Many work for a name in this world to bow to man in his arrogance and wickedness, and to your cloaked ministers. Lay down your mantle and expose your heart to the world. Many of you are in disguise, the cloak of heaven to serve the devil. I speak to one the same as to another who are known to me. You may live to the world, two in one, but not to your heavenly Father. There is but one and one to save. He that lives two will be damned. You cannot live good and evil at the same time. Confess your sins to me only and in truth, that I alone may see fit to receive you. You cannot receive me and the devil. You must live him or live God, that ye may be helped. In the devil's works man knows not how to help or trust the other as I do. Be ye all of me and ye are safe in building for what I build will never fall, so hold fast to me. Have I not told you to spend your riches I gave you for the suffering, the sick, to lessen the burden of the poor which you were once, and now, that I raised you, you turned to the devil that he might destroy you. You are caught hourly in his net, in his cunning guilded

net that ye may suffer losses, shame, sickness and death. For humility and love I give you perfect life, a life of blissful happiness, no soul on earth has ever known. There is a crown for the cross, that ye may be strong in me and I in you, that ye may be made perfect in eternal happiness.

Your children will honor and obey you in everything because they are of God. But now they drink of the devil's cup and lust, bring you to shame. Mother and father, have you not sown the seed of the devil, that ye may suffer in your last years? Can ye say to your offspring yea or nay for you have sent your darkest curses, the devil has stolen the modesty God gave you. You have lost your blushes of innocence and purity God gave you and taken the brazen face of the harlot and Satan's visitor. You enter in the side door of hell, for such it is. You are growing lower and lower, but your master you have followed cannot help you, for he has bound you under his curse and you must be likewise.

Glorify your God, now that you know his promise shall be fulfilled. Ye that have suffered shall be released, and the power of the heavenly Father shall clean every den of vice, lust, drink, stealing and lying from his world, and all that are of Him shall not be hurt. Now, I warn you, priests, ministers, doctors and scientists, deny not my works, for in the last days your heavenly Father will work many miracles to prove to you his power that you have ignored through the power of the devil. You have denied the truest parts of the book of prophets. Did not I say to you that ye could do greater than I if ye were with the Father as I am? Did I not say to you of the healing of the laying on of hands in His name and discerning of spirits in His name, to prove His powers, and you denied and ignored me in every way, even by the devil's whips. You opened your prison gates for those that were of the Spirit. Now open them ye lawyers and hypocrites that live by lying and plunder the hearts of the innocent to gain your profits without sympathy or honor, that you may revel in the devil's works. Now ye shall lay down the sword of the devil. Ye can no longer slay for your time has come for accounting, greater than ye expect. Your false dollars must go as ye least expect. Ye may labor to hold, but who is greater than God. You know me only on certain occasions, He that gives you life. You are growing deeper in the power of the devil every hour you live. You cease to be sincere, except to benefit yourself.

A NEW REVELATION

Ye are filled with greed for extravagance to follow your neighbor who cheats and lies to his creditors. Cease your false show, live within your income, owe no man lest you can pay him. Don't cheat, for that is the devil's works. I am watching your life even though your doors are locked. I know, so do your recording angels. Ye are feasting now in the devil's wealth, but woe unto the thieves. Give to every man his weight, the full value of his money, for ye shall have to pay it after. You shall teach your children honesty and truth and of their heavenly Father who fills their hearts and minds. I don't want lip service from them, but love which I am, so ye may be benefited thereby. You will find me, seek me in the home. Deck not your bodies in gowns of gorgeous colors to parade to your fashionable churches. I am never with the fashionables. They are of satan and his serfs. They are not of me, but him that constantly brings sorrow and scandals among them. The life of divine love is filled with gifts unlimited. The winter is as the spring, no poverty, except made by the devil. My children go broadcast with the devil's works and therefore suffer. So to make all perfect I shall remove all that is of the devil, that they may no longer suffer as in the past, but live in success and love.

AND A NEW WORLD

They shall have all our heavenly Father can bestow upon them. Every child in the new world will look up to the Father as the giver of all. They shall no longer have cruel lives in dark prisons and starvation, as the princes of the devil have created, who shall inhabit the prisons that were built from the devil, and those that will go with him.

Money and pride have torn down my world until it cannot go any lower, though it may take years to rebuild. It shall go if I don't find my number. Not a timber shall stand upon the other that is not of me. The birds in their happiness shall remain. All innocence shall be sheltered until the storm is past. One will fall and the other shall stand, that he may build greater than has ever been. The earth shall produce beauty never before known. There shall be no more handling of weapons, but in place hands shall clasp in harmony. You shall eat what thou hast not eaten before, for fruits and vegetables shall be changed and you will live more on the greatness of the atmosphere. It will be pure and healthy and you will not require what you use now, for then all is perfect of me and there will be no error to enter. Ye shall no longer fast for me, but feast in love and harmony in what the Father gives. Drink, eat and be merry in glory to your heavenly Father, for he shall replenish at your call. Have I not said come unto me as little children for such is the kingdom of heaven? Have I found you as such? Nay, you have been instruments of lip service and forms. Have you not had your infants baptized in my name? Why did ye not raise them in my name? No, your hearts were in the world. Your children grew up like wild weeds, not knowing the power of the Father, but they received the attractions of the devil in your fast clubs, where lust and drink prevails, and the Father cannot be found. Ye, therefore, cease to baptize with water and teach your children the true light of our Father. Bring them to me in love instead of the tabernacle of the devil. You teach them false pride to scorn my humble suffering lambs. You ministers have too much love for money caste with the devil. Cast with Christ is God's satisfaction only. In the coming regeneration and the God world which you must be prepared for, there will be what you have ignored as low and put under the band of the law. Many under the influence of the devil went forward in my power. They should pay for their sowing. But ye put all on par and give them much sorrow. That which ye have scorned will rule in the wisdom of God's power. Divine love shall produce prophets and prophetesses which will be wise in this power to reveal to one another the truth of everything. In that time ye shall be born of the Spirit and be baptized by the Spirit. What profit ye by water if the heart is not clean. Many have been murderers, thieves and liars who were baptized in the Father's name. Many have been the parents who placed the stone in their children's path, that they may stumble and fall. Do ye ever open the book of the prophets and teach them from me? Nay, upon the Sabbath ye send your children into your showrooms to hear of me and forget me the remainder of the week. I chastise you, for you have given your lives to fashion and scorning those of your former lives. You ride the high horse until you fall and those you scorn shall not pick you up for they are nearer to me and ye are the devil's friends. Does he pick ye up, but to let you fall? He is a weakling when I call. In the House of God you have held aloof from one another, where we were supposed to visit to worship and thank your heavenly Father, who gives freely, who smiles the smiles of heavenly love upon all, to receive a stone in return. You stone and bruise Him every day. Let your week day and Sabbath be alike, my days are alike. Keep your thoughts and your hearts clean and you will be free to receive my blessings and those week days are all Sabbaths. There is no difference to me. Ye shall all be free born, the world is God's and no one man shall hold the yoke of the devil in his power against the many. Ye are my children and not one is greater than the other in my name. This is the law of our Father and there is no other. Have ye not been poor and then given riches to see how you would use it? Have ye not gone to the devil in your selfish greed to crush the poor and the talented? Your last days are near, so pack not your jewels and goods, for they shall vanish, so that ye shall not recognize them. Ye shall wear the jewels of love twined about your necks. Your wristlet shall be as a diadem of love from the inmost heart flowing out to your spiritual neighbor, and the most beautiful gems of victory over a conquered foe, the devil, shall be all the jewels you shall wear and carry them with you all the time, in every conversation and all your doings. This is the Father's doings in Heaven, can He do more? You kings of pride shall groan and you princes in all your glory shall pine for a kind word from those you have trampled upon. Did I not walk out among the humble and take them with me? Did not many that were weak fall and go back to satan, and do ye know how they fell one after the other, slain by their own, even mine were stoned and killed through their faith, that they might come to the Father in glory. I am he that speaketh the word of truth, that which cannot be denied by priest nor minister, pope, cardinal or your bishops. For the day cometh when ye shall be sorry for the egotism, cherished on account of your forms and beliefs in paganism. Unite your voices in love and harmony in sanctification to the Father who is the giver of all. Mourn not when the armour and pomp is laid away for my Father, for it shall go and ye shall call but one holy. You shall battle, but ye shall be conquered. Wise men of God, ye call yourselves, open your eyes that ye may see and hear the words of your heavenly Father. He loveth you for the good you have done, but ye must come without sword, but love to each one of you, as you have come to me and I will exalt you, that ye shall teach each one my love only. You shall all sing in the choir of angels. All I ask is that ye may take heed and believe my words. Thou shalt tell the conveyor of my message rest in peace, for she has been blest by the heavenly Father, as shall be of each one of you in my coming. She has been humble and true from the inner self and no one has known her heart, but to bruise it in the past, but our heavenly Father gave her rest and restored her from her great sufferings, that her prayers should be answered, that she might give her life for the suffering and helpless. She sought not this world's goods, for she has had and lost. It held no value to God's love when she found the truth and experience of perfect love in God. God has given only which you shall all be blessed with when you receive him in her light. The cup and bread was the Holy Spirit and God gave her in return blessed vision that she could prophesy in truth. God enfolds and unfolds according as ye have met him. Your Father will visit the high host, the kings of the earth on the earth, they shall go deep in the pit, the net wove for the classes. They set the example of lust and extravagance which caused robbery and lying and led the masses in their snare, that they should do likewise. The world has gone crazed in the power of satan not knowing those are his last days and he is in the height of his evil, knowing I am coming to cast him behind me into his pit. Woe unto you that do not heed, if you don't, fire will burn in your hearts that you will perish. He that calls me through faith and love, fires may surround him even in the midst of war, he shall not fall but to live in glory. Plant your crops in the light in my name, that you may benefit my children, not in the dirt that ye can hoard in high prices to starve the poor and their children. That is your only thought. Not love for each other, but that you may increase to make a show in the devil's reign. Know that you all owe your heavenly Father much for ignoring Him? He has given you much, and every human must pay his debts, even though he became godly, he must settle the accounts he left unpaid. You cannot lie and cheat, then enter the church and expect love and help from the Father. He is the Father of love and humility and as his children you shall be. Your great prices shall fall and every dollar made from it you shall clothe the poor and humble. Did you not steal it from them in your war of the devil? Did you not make hungry children and help the foul princes to murder them by the score? Woe unto every demon that raised the sword to the dear ones, their habitations shall be desolate. They shall lay flat upon the ground, their heads can no more be held up before the world for the devil's curse is upon them and their pride. Turkey shall fall before the world, for she is no longer to be considered among the civilized. They shall be completely wiped out, as they wiped out the innocent of God. They have been the offspring of the devil, and they must fall with him. Shall they not be accounted for their bloodshed, and every one that bred it encouraged it. Ye may be educated of the devil, but not of God. For man in the wisdom of God cannot plunder, fire and outrage innocent children and damsels of my creating and rise before nations that I give honor, liberty and help to. All that ye have destroyed will I build ten times greater, and the waste thou hast made will give ten fold as my children come to me in love. I am the only one, the power over all the earth, at my call you shall come.

Now ye can prepare for the bride. For God and the angels are preparing for the coming over from the devil. Ye shall be delivered from your persecution and sore afflictions. Ye shall all be as one nation in brotherly love. Many things shall be as one. Ye must all speak from the power of God. All arrogance and pride on thrones will fall. Ye must clean in my name until they that have cursed my powers shall be no more. He that has been a king shall be as naught, except he fall in humility and love. Then he must pay his debt. But he that was the first to breed war shall go from me for generation to generation in their own shame, for nothing that is of the devil can exist in my power. I shall clean every thought of bloodshed and thrones from the earth. The lamb that was least among you gave ye to eat, gave ye peace, and ye greedy sheep wove your nets with lion jaws to devour her. She has been the comforter of the whole world in her liberty and freedom. So I shall make her the nation of all nations and she shall deliver to you peace and living. You in your kingdoms shall fall to her for she has struggled under the sword for freedom and ye that persecuted the lamb have come to her to defeat the devil and his serfs, so, therefore, divide, live and love one another as I love you and all will be well and I will save you. Ye that go out to crush the devil's works in my name shall be exalted. Ye that save a soul shall have a ransom. There is no den ye cannot enter, that I wont guide you. Go in the name of the Father, the devil and his host cannot harm you. Go, ye, in my name, crush, crush until every female den is cleansed and every rum shop shattered and I will bless you. Shelter and teach them in my love. You of the street corners have protected the devil's dens for years for the money. He that has made white slaves shall go into everlasting tortures until he can restore his sight through suffering and humility. He has

sown and must reap his own crop. God is divine principle, so, therefore, can any harmony exist where there is evil? Where I am all must be perfect, truth, spirit, love, life, which constitutes all in all. You have removed my foundation from all your works, for therein I find no principle but self, and I, the Father, am for all, have been from the greatest to the least and when the devil took such full possession of you all I let go, so you could get the full benefit, until the love of evil flourished and grew love in such abundance that it grew to waste. So that the strength of love grew weak and died, that it could be replanted, cultivated to bear everlasting fruit that ye might gather, eat and never fail your strength, never be weary, but always flourish as the branch from the vine, which is of the Heavenly Father, so shall be such in my reign. As the shepherd watches over his flock by night, so do I over my flock, for I am your shepherd. The earth shall pour forth all its glory and wealth that is and ever was that ye may build bountiful, that not only a few in my name can flourish, but so shall every lamb share. So now ye take notice and understand my meaning. I shall have no great riches and great poor, ye are all mine and I cannot make bone of one and flesh of another. Oh, damsels, wash clean your hearts, be not clean and showy on the outside and a stench in body, I know you. Ye shall fall and die in your lust never to rise. Those you lured in your dens of stench will not know you, for each and every soul will be separated as strangers that one can no longer lead the other. I love you, but I do hate your hellish works. When ye have been cleanly washed, I shall pave your path in marble, fill the home with eternal happiness. There is no home without it. Cease in strife, husband and wife. Save your lambs, raise them in my love that they may be a credit to you. That the love of the devil, pride and extravagance will not lock them in his prison to fill your family in disgrace. When the devil punishes you, it is to make you sore, because he knows you are mine. Every blow he gives you is my harvest, for is it not through sorrow, that is often your best friend, that you come to me for comfort? Fear it not, for know you that satan has filled your lives in sorrow, for he knows he has to deliver all to me in time, even he in his glory must fall to the Father. He carries in his cloven hands a torch of his light and an oil to annoint you. In his forms he falls and drinks from the cup and eats from nothingness. Divine Principle,

A NEW REVELATION

God, the cup of love and eternal happiness is soon to fill the earth, and not when you think, but when I appoint my angels to go. Have not you been warned of the devil's war, when the heavens would be filled in wars and miracles as never before? Judge not thereby your own delays but by the truth for the year is near at hand. I want all that will come, for am I not your Creator and Father? Shall I not suffer at your weakness and suffering with the cloven foot in hell? For such there is, as you live so are you placed in your leave from earth. So you must judge soon. There will be no lasting peace. Turbulence, stealing, lying and lust will last until I come, for ye of the devil are weak and will not believe. Earthquake, fires, floods, everything but my presence has failed to crush his works, so, therefore, my presence on earth is the only protection. Fill your hearts with loving kindness and follow all and obey my words and I may heal and save you. The war of the devil that will lead many to the Father, in their pride, they have fallen, lost all, then they found Christ in their thorns of sorrow and suffering. Ye that have become blind and cripple through his works come to your heavenly Father, I will give you sight and ye shall walk. Ye are of me, I

of you. I will give you joy your never had.

You shall see the God sight and feel in His power so that ye shall not sorrow but rejoice in my world for you are redeemed and relinquished from persecution. My children whom I have given much shall share his own and ye shall have all your needs supplied. They shall come in my name. The banks shall no longer be locked with the keys from the devil, but of the heavenly Father. As He gives, so will they give through their love of me and ye shall all be filled with love of your Father.

Greater love no man hath and shall fill the world. No more millstones shall hang about your necks, no more shall your enemies seek to devour you, for the Father is always near. The spirit of love can but save you. That of the old revelation shall be put aside and ye shall live by my new one, which I seal in the name of the Father to His beloved children in the year of our Lord and Master, which shall reign now and forever more over all kingdoms in heaven and earth.

This is the final word of the Lord, and I Jesus of Nazareth, the mediator between man and the Father, hath delivered to His loved ones, both to the rich in their worldly goods and the humble in the slums, that they may awaken in truth, for ye are all children of the Father in spirit, but not of the flesh, which ye have lived in since the beginning.

Waken up, my dear one, before the hour when the tide comes to sweep every vestige of satan's reign. Never was there such a day and hour and never again. I am much on earth, making every pathway of righteousness that I might save from eternal ruin of the building of ages. Our Lord can tear down and build up, so therefore, ye can build again. I, therefore, plead with you to come all and drink of the loving waters from the fountain of love, that ye shall never more thirst, but live in glory. Could I give you an idea of the greatness of the great things our Lord has in store for you, I would; but human eye nor mind cannot conceive it.

So now I will depart from you in my message from the All Supreme, in glorification and love to you all.

Your loving mediator and dictator from heaven.

I am Jesus of Nazareth who was born in Bethlehem and died on the cross.

Finis Sept. 2, 1917, 11 o'clock A. M.

APPENDIX

My dear child of the Father, now the time has come for my book to be published, you were given one year before the closing of the devil's reign. The month is soon here when the arrogance of the devil has fallen. No peace shall be made until every person has trembled for his brutality to my dear children. I say no peace parleys. There is a German propaganda floating and I am aware of it. No peace shall be made until the Allies have come to victory.

Then I shall come with the power to show them what their greedy spirit has brought for their determination. They shall be made the poorest nation in existence, nothing shall thrive for generations, for it is a cursed nation. Their blotting out at my coming will be great, that is to be as stated in my book. All I promise shall be at my coming to those who believe in me. I claim ten million true godly souls to rebuild the New World. There will be no trembling of the earth if I see there is a change in the hearts of those that are filling a drunkard's grave and living lustful lives. I desire you to note coming events. Have you not had the greatest sorrow, now opening your whisky dens again, that you may be burnt out the next coming? Woe unto every whisky den. Your vice is great and must go. My reign will begin in the year of our Lord 1919. AMEN.

Jesus of Nazareth, the prince of Love and Peace, Born in Bethlehem and died on the Cross.
